

Police/Fire Report

Warrant issued

Halton police have issued an arrest warrant for a 36-year-old Acton man who threatened his father with a knife after demanding money from him on June 3. After the incident, the suspect, who has mental issues and was taking his medication, fled the scene.

Police are looking for Bradley Williams, last seen wearing a black leather vest and faded blue jeans. If you have any information regarding the whereabouts of this individual, call Halton Regional Police at (905) 878-5511.

Limehouse B&E

Electronics equipment and jewellery valued over $5,000 were stolen from a residence on the Sixth Line in Limehouse on Tuesday afternoon. Police said a rear door was forced open and two stereos, a laptop computer, an Xbox, Bell Xpressv PVR, a CD player, a GPS and a VHS player were taken.

False alarm

Acton firefighters were unable to find any trace of carbon monoxide when they answered an alarm activation at a Kingham Road residence at 8:34 on Friday morning.

Bonfire

Firefighters extinguished a small bonfire that had smoldered through the night at a property on 27 Side Road in the Silvercreek area at 5:21 last Wednesday morning.

Building a better Halton plan unveiled

Halton Regional Chair, Gary Carr and Public Works Commissioner Mitch Zamojc, have unveiled the new visual identity for Halton Region's infrastructure projects: Building a Better Halton.

"This new identity will help residents recognize Regional infrastructure projects across the region and know that their tax dollars are hard at work Building a Better Halton," said Carr. "This year we are investing $362-million for infrastructure maintenance, service expansion and new projects. This investment in strategic projects will help us achieve our goal of creating sustainable communities and ensures that Halton remains a great place to live, work, raise a family and retire."

As part of the communications strategy to support Building a Better Halton's infrastructure, construction plan materials, including web content, project-specific brochures and construction notice door knockers will be distributed to better inform residents of the Region's construction activities.

Halton Crime Stoppers earns a top award

During the four-day Ontario Crime Stoppers training conference in Windsor, Crime Stoppers of Halton was presented with the Marla Moon Award of Excellence for communities with a population of more than 300,000.

The award acknowledges a program has achieved overall excellence for the year when compared to the accomplishments of other Crime Stoppers units of similar size across the province.

"It is a great honour for Halton Crime Stoppers to receive an award from the Ontario Association of Crime Stoppers recognizing our program for excellence during the past year," said Cal Millar, chair of Halton's Crime Stoppers program, giving credit to former chair Tom Suddaby.

Representatives from 34 of the province's 38 Crime Stoppers programs attended the Windsor conference which wrapped up on Tuesday.

Halton Crime Stoppers is a non-profit community-based organization that was established in 1988 to take tips anonymously from anyone who has information about any unsolved crimes. There are more than 1,200 Crime Stoppers programs operating in more than 40 countries around the world.

Collectively they have solved more than 1.2 million cases; recovered almost $2 billion in stolen property and provided information to police that has led to the seizure of drugs with a street value of more than $9.9 billion, according to accumulative statistics compiled by Crime Stoppers International.
