Rolling party at skate park

Skate boarders and BMXers put Acton's Three Musketeers skate park through its paces on Monday in a double celebration — the three-year anniversary of the opening of the facility and International Go Skateboarding Day.

Thanks to the generosity of members of the Three Musketeers fundraising group, hoards of happy kids on wheels enjoyed music, giveaways and a challenge as local politicians, members of the ASAP (Acton Sports Action Park) committee and Three Musketeers members watched and cheered.

Boarders and bikers in different age groups competed in a timed run of the skate park — sort of a poker run — but the participants picked up letters to spell out words as they navigated the course.

Daniel Brown took the junior skateboarding prize, while Bart Amroz and Caleb Chang shared senior skateboarding honours, and Mitch Gendron and Colton Fowler took the top senior BMX prize.

All of the 20 participants received a T-shirt, and the challenge winners received mini-skateboards and Earbuds, prized donated by the Three Musketeers.

The well-used skate park that cost $204,000 to build — half of the money was donated — continues to draw large crowds of riders of all ages that continue to find the facility fun and challenging.
