

ers Association presented an excellent fireworks display at Prospect Park and filled Prospect Park to watch the show. — Frances Niblock photo

SHOW PREP: Preparation for the spectacular Canada Day fireworks display at Prospect Park involved hours of hard work by members of the Acton Fire Fighters Association as they carefully buried 600 shells. — Frances Niblock photo

RED WHITE AND PROUD: Mayor Rick and Josey Bonnette helped celebrate Canada Day during the annual Glen Williams parade. — Frances Niblock photo

ct Park enjoyed the sweet sounds of J-Force, singers and dancers at Prospect Park. — Frances Niblock photo

PAINTED PALS
Best friends Brianna Dominic of Acton (left) and Raeanne Austin of Guelph got into the patriotic spirit as they celebrated Canada Day in Prospect Park last Thursday. — Frances Niblock photo