

SLICE BY SLICE: Gift certificates for Domino's pizza awaited the person who could inhale the most pizza slices.

DON'T LOOK DOWN: Guelph's Alyssa Jones, 6, clambered to the top of the climbing wall with ease and no jitters.

LOVELY LADIES: These five green thumbs were on hand to promote the Acton Horticultural Society.

Wasn't that

To the Editor:

Well, another Festival has come and gone and from all reports it was a huge success! The winner for the best decorated vendor booth was the Acton Horticultural Society. They did an amazing job with the gardens and Mardi Gras theme. Special thanks to the Georgetown Little Theatre for volunteering to hand out beads and masks during the day. It was an added touch to the festival this year.

I would like to thank the committee who worked diligently throughout the year, Terry Foster, Nicholl Spence and Councillor Jon Hurst. The Acton BIA could not have done this without you.

The Leathertown Festival Committee would like to thank all the volunteers who helped during the day. There's a lot of work involved putting on an event of this magnitude, even the weatherman cooperated (to a certain extent.)

Special thanks to the Town of Halton Hills Public Works staff who worked so hard to help make our festival a success.

CLASSIC CARS: Don McIsaac proudly displayed his '69 Chev Malibu and his '56 Chev Bel Air.

ICE MOVES: It took members of the Acton Figure Skating Club, including Lindsay Christopher, a while to get the feel of synthetic ice.

DOG, ANYONE: Acton Rotarian Don McKnight (centre) sold tickets for donated hotdogs to raise money for polio, with support from Mayor Rick Bonnette and Acton Councillor Jon Hurst.

SHARP & STEADY: Busker Kobbie Jay risked all to entertain an appreciative crowd.

HOME FIRE SAFETY: Children were educated in fire safety and safety by Dave Ford and Halton Hills staff.

WHEEL MAN: Acton's Darin... spin around the track and receive a certificate from Halton Hills...
