Local Man Wins Wise Outdoor Water Use Contest

Acton's John New is the grand prize winner of the Wise Outdoor Water Use Contest to underscore the need for water conservation. New won a prize package valued at $1,200, including an Master Landscape Design Plan from Sheridan Nurseries, a $500 Sheridan Nurseries gift card towards the purchase of drought tolerant plants, a copy of The Canadian Illustrated Guide to Green Gardening and an Outdoor Watering Toolkit.

"The response to this contest demonstrates resident's commitment to reducing outdoor water use during the warmer months," said Halton's Regional Chair, Gary Carr. "Over 500 residents entered the contest and shared the ways they reduce their outdoor water use during the summer months when water consumption often doubles."

Oakville's Karola Arima won second prize, valued at over $400 including an in-store

Landscape Design Sketch from Sheridan Nurseries, a $250 Sheridan Nurseries Gift Card towards the purchase of drought tolerant plants and an Outdoor Watering Toolkit.

Third prize went to Kiren Hansji of Milton who's prize package values $275, including an in-store Landscape Design Sketch from Sheridan Nurseries, a $150 Sheridan Nurseries Gift Card towards the purchase of drought tolerant plants and an Outdoor Watering Toolkit.
