Police/Fire Report

Car keyed

Someone keyed the driver’s door of a vehicle parked on Church Street between October 8 and 9, causing $300 damage.

Faulty detector?

Acton firefighters suspect that a faulty carbon monoxide detector was to blame for an alarm activation at 62 Church St., West at 7:02 on Sunday night.

Illegal burn

No word what was being burned at 202 Main St. South just after midnight on Sunday, but when Acton firefighters responded to a burn complaint, the fire was extinguished.

Bush fire

Neighbours extinguished a small fire in the bush area on Greenore Crescent and parents questioned children playing in the area before fire fighters arrived on scene at 12:50 p.m. on Saturday. There was no damage and Halton police were called.

Mustang catches fire

Over heated oil coating the exhaust system of a 1999 Ford Mustang is suspected in starting a small fire that burned the carpet and seat upholstery of the car at 12:18 p.m. last Thursday. The interior also suffered heavy smoke damage. The fire was out when firefighters arrived on the scene on Highway 7, west of Dublin Line.
