Acton Seniors Centre members and Halton Industry Education Council (HIEC) are hoping to work with students on a project named Seniors and Social Media: Connecting Generations through Technology. Seniors talk to students from a local school, and the students then research various aspects of the seniors lives e.g. where they were born, what town they grew up in, what interesting events happened during their lives, and produce a video for them. This gives the students chance to get to know seniors and learn a little about how they lived many years ago. The purpose of this project is to interest students in researching the Internet, making notes, using electronic medium, and communicating with other people. At the celebration, at the end of the session, each senior would receive a copy of their personal video.

If this interests you please ask Wendy for more details or sign the appropriate sheet at reception.

Next Tuesday at 1 p.m., the movie will be Killers, an action comedy. Michelle tells me this is a new release.

has a great trip planned to get you in the Christmas mood. You will travel to the Vegas Dinner Theatre in Vaughan. Before the show, you will enjoy a delicious lunch followed by tribute artist Anthony Von who will be singing all of Elvis's best known and most popular Christmas and inspirational songs, accompanied by the Heavenly Angels Choir.

Maria Sallay has donated a beautiful original water colour painting. The ticket will be drawn at the Annual Christmas Dinner, so you have lots of chance to purchase tickets for this beautiful scene, which is I understand is a painting of the land before the Acton Hydro Building was built. The penny ticket prizes are now on display, and Marj McDonough certainly has some wonderful prizes.

Roberta Thompson had the only mooner at Bid Euchre on Thursday afternoon. Congratulations Roberta.

Reception chair Susie Blanchet Haffey asked me to remind all receptionists there will be a meeting on Tuesday, October 19 at 10 a.m. This is a very important meeting, so please try to attend.

Sadly, we heard Isabel Nicholls passed away this week. We will miss seeing her at the social dinners. Isabel never missed a trip to the Rama or Niagara Casinos. I will miss seeing her at Monday afternoon's bowling. She certainly enjoyed life. The members at the Acton Seniors Centre extend their condolences to her family.

The winner of the 50/50 draw this week was Carmen Bissonnette. She will receive a cheque for $138.50. That will make for a happy Thanksgiving. Congratulations Carmen.
