Tanners blank Fusion

Trendz Hair Studio Novice Acton Tanners defeated Centre Wellington Fusion 4-0 on Saturday. It was the Tanners' third shutout of the year, and was shared by Matthew Lantz, in his first game of the season, and Owen Borges.

Some strong board work by Owen Kennedy led to a breakaway for Nolan Cree to open scoring early in the second period.

Spencer Booth showed his speed once more as he broke in free on a pass from Stuart Macdonald to give the Tanners a 2-0 lead. Cree scored again early in the third from Evan Ashe and Thomas Holmes, then Tristan Wight finished off the scoring with a nice wrap around goal.

The Novice Tanners would like to thank Christine Booth for all that she does as our Team Manager, as they head off to a tournament in Haliburton this weekend. Whether it is organizing schedules, events and tournaments or keeping track of statistics and game sheets, Christine would be the first to say it is all worth it, for the fun her sons and their teammates are having this year. Head Coach Joe Borges, Forward Coach Allan Kennedy, Defense Coach Colin Ashe and Trainer Steve Cree look forward to a fun weekend away with the team.
