The last board meeting for 2010 was a pot luck luncheon held at our Co-ordinator Wendy Krever's home. This is the fifth time she and her husband Bill have graciously allowed us to enjoy the luncheon in their home. Eleven board members, our administrative assistant Michelle Durham, Councillor Jon Hurst our Council Liaison and, of course, our host Wendy were there enjoying the wide array of favorite dishes.

On Thursday afternoon, there was a select group of ten ladies playing Bid Euchre. Roberta Thompson had two mooners, and May Hoare, Mary Irwin and Betty Brewer each had one. They are hoping there will be more players next Thursday.

On Tuesday January 11, the travel desk have a trip planned to Barrie to play Bingo and have lunch, on the return journey they will stop at Georgian Downs Casino for a little flutter.

There is a sign up sheet at the front desk.

The next social dinner will be on Monday, January 17, so get your tickets early. Juke Box will be playing again for your entertainment. We will be celebrating a belated New Year, and facing the January blahs after all the excitement, food and socializing over the holidays. On the menu is Swiss Chalet chicken, baked potatoes and coleslaw followed by a decadent brownie and ice-cream, and of course, lots of prizes. Tickets are available at the front desk. I am sure we will get a great response to this dinner, as everyone enjoys the music of Juke Box, and Swiss Chalet chicken.

Where does the time go? December is slipping away fast and memberships should be renewed before the end of the month.

I know this is a long way off, but is anyone interested in going to Oakville on Tuesday, June 28 to see a matinee featuring The Burlington Footnotes in a show titled Gotta Sing, Gotta Dance! This features 90 performers ages 55-plus, in a fast moving variety show. I need to know if there is any interest so I can to reserve tickets so please write your name on the sheet.

Why not take time out of your busy shopping schedule and plan on spending a couple of hours the Centre on December 21 at 1 p.m. Relax and enjoy the original classic Alistair Sim movie. A Christmas Carol.

Are you looking for the perfect hostess gift? We have wonderful fruit cakes for sale. Perfect for you to enjoy as a little treat or take to a friend.

Bev Jones name was drawn on Friday afternoon, and he was the winner of $190.50. Bev is our fundraising chair, and spends a lot of time and energy working on behalf of the Centre. A very worthy winner.

ALL ABOARD: The Halton County Radial Railway Museum, in Rockwood, welcomed 230 Boy Scouts and Cubs from Brampton, Huttonville, Milton and Acton, along with their families, to ride the rails with Santa on Saturday. The second annual Christmas celebration, organised by Acton's scouting movement, included seasonal treats and carol singing. - Denise Paulsen photo
