Two ties for Novice Tanners team

The Trendz Hair Studio Novice Acton Tanners played two tie games last week against Erin-Hillsburgh.

The first was Wednesday in Erin, when the home team came out strong and scored twice to lead 2-0. The Tanners picked up their game and were rewarded when Evan Ashe found the five-hole on passes from Stuart Macdonald and Brandon Hatt. Early in the third, Spencer Booth intercepted a pass and used his speed to fly past the goalie and tie the game. Just minutes later, Tristan Wight gave the Tanners their first lead from Ashe and Hatt. Owen Borges made some key saves down the stretch, but some bad bounces allowed Erin-Hillsburgh to end it a 3-3 tie.

At home on Saturday, Acton came out fast, with Matthew Geim snapping home the puck on a pretty feed from Spencer Booth and Thomas Holmes, just two minutes into the game. The Tanners played well, but fell behind 2-1 with goals by Erin-Hillsburgh. It looked like they would fall behind by two, but Matthew Lantz saved the puck on the goal line to keep it close. Smooth skating Brett Hiltz made a smart play, flipping the puck out of his own end, splitting the defense and scoring on a breakaway.

The Tanners killed off a penalty for the last two minutes to preserve the 2-2 tie. The season series vs. Erin-Hillsburgh ended with three ties and a win for Acton.

The Acton Tanners are at home on Saturday at 4:30 p.m., against Caledon.
