THE AFTERMATH

Heckey fans will be interested in the games arranged fellowing the climination of Acton in O. II. A. On Friday night the Actua team will play the Guelph team in the Royal City, with the return game in Acten on Monday night. Both teams are out to win and this series premises to equal the scheduled games for keen rivalry. The series will decide an argument of some length.

PIRST GAME - ROUND TWO

Acton was drawn to meet Durham in the second round of the O. H. A. champtonship race, and the first game last Friday night went to Durham by 4-3. We were fortunate in having a space reserved in the rink for the press, and is seems to be our duty to describe the same pretty fully since a lot of folks who Jenneyed from Actum were unable to got even a bird's-eye' view of the struggle, owing to the limited size of the Durham rink.

So here's the game, and we reserve the little comments until the end. The ice surface is also small in Durham and the local lads were at an advantage here. - Raybould was laying down some nice plays for the rest of his team. Terry and Norm Morton were right in but the goal was an offside play. Durham boys were good checkers. Norm was right in on Schutz, but had no luck in scoring, and Bus Morton picked up a rebound shot.
