Dear Grace: On your retirement from the posttion of organist of Ebenezer Church. we take this opportunity of expressing our gratitude for services rendered. We are not forgetful that it calls for efficiency, perseverence and punctuality, all of which has characterized your work.

The service of sacred song is a ministry of great value in the worship of God.

The power lies in this, that all worshippers may take a part. which calls forth the best that the human heart can express.

You, as a leader, have generously taken your part and place in such service.

And now we ask you to accept a amali token-of our appreciation of your faithful work. And as the years come and go, may the beauty of song ever fill your heart and inspire you to press on in the worship of
