ERIN

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Robinson, of Toronto, visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Scott on Sunday. We regret to report the illness of Mrs. P. McAllister, and wish her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Steven, Mr. Fred Steen and Mr. John Horton, Jr., spent Sunday with Toronto friends. Friends of Mrs. D. S. Letch were pleased to see her able to be about, following an operation. "The Work of the Travellers Aid," by Miss Mary McMillan, and "Christ's Command Go Ye," by Mrs. H. J. Richardson, were stirring topic features in Church of Christ Young People's service last Friday night. Mrs. W. J. Grundy is the leader of the group responsible for this interesting and effective service. Messrs. D. S. Letch, Howard McArthur and George Sanders spent a few days fishing in the vicinity of Bayville, Ontario. Mrs. Jennie Hull, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hull, Ruth and Charles were Sunday visitors with Dr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, at Brampton.—Advocate.

CAMPBELLVILLE

On Wednesday afternoon last, the Ladies' Aid of St. David's Church held a tea in the Sunday school room. Master Dick Hubbert, of Brantford, is spending a few days this week at the home of his grandfather, Mr. R. H. Hubbert. Mr. Wm. McLaren spent Saturday in Toronto. Miss Jacqueline Bell spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. John Kennedy, Misses Annie and Jane Reid spent Saturday in Toronto. The many friends of Mr. T. A. Whisellham will be glad to know that he expects to be home soon after being in the hospital for several months. Rev. Mr. Short, Moderator of the Presbyterian Church, of Barrie, will have charge of the service at St. David's Church on Sunday, June 2nd, at 2:30 p. m. The friends of Miss Kay Bell, who has been laid up for a few weeks, will be pleased to know that she is improving. Campbell Lodge, A. P. & M. W., have commenced to build their new hall. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. P. of Toronto, visited at the home of Mrs. E. Bell on Sunday. The play, "An Old Fashioned Mother," which was put on by the Young People's Society of Eden Mills in St. David's Church on Friday evening last, was a real treat. There was a splendid turnout to hear the play. Mrs. C. Norris and Miss A. Fulton spent Saturday in Toronto.

LIMEHOUSE

In the United Church a slight change has been made in the hour of service for the summer months. Sunday School will meet at 9:30 a. m., and the worship service at 10:30 a. m., standard time. June 10th this year completes the ten years of union in the United Church of Canada, and on Sunday, June 9th, a service fitting such an occasion will be held in each church on the Limehouse charge. General Council had recommended that a special service be held in every United Church in Canada the same day. On June 16th, the Limehouse United Church will hold its anniversary. Rev. R. W. Rumley, Georgetown, will preach at 10:30 a. m., and Rev. G. H. Knighton, Waterdown, in the evening, at 7:30 standard time. The committee appointed to superintend the construction of a tennis court will begin operations this week. Mr. R. W. Johnson motored north to Thornhill on Friday of last week to visit his parents and his son, Harold, there. Capt. J. L. Sutherland has returned home from Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Miller moved last week to Brantford. Mr. and Mrs. Will Millere, Jr., of Brampton, spent Sunday with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gowdy, of Toronto, visited his parents in Limehouse last Sunday. Three new members were received on Communion Sunday in the United Church. The Official Board met the following Monday, at Glenwilliams, which a most interesting and helpful discussion on church life and work, both at home and abroad, took place. The board having arranged for the Missionary Campaign in April, contributions to the extent of about half as much as was given during the entire past year have been forwarded to the central treasurer. The Official Board extended a unanimous invitation to the pastor, Rev. G. I. Stephenson, to remain for the coming year. A social hour, in which the ladies of Glenwilliams served refreshments, was enjoyed by all. On Monday evening the Harmony Club are planning a special program and banquet as a closing feature of the winter season, which has proven most attractive and helpful. We are glad to report that Mrs. G. I. Stephenson, who has been confined to bed since May 10th, with painful injuries as the result of a fall, is improving, and hopes to be around soon.

BALLINAFAD

Rev. Mr. Waddell, of Hamilton, is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Blake Vannatter. Mr. Wm. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Culp and family spent the week-end with friends at Proton. Mr. and Mrs. George Soper, of Acton; Mrs. Jas. Livingston and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Soper, of Guelph, visited during the week at the home of the former's brother, Mr. Alfred Soper. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Noble, of Guelph, visited on Sunday at the home of the former's father, Mr. Chas. Noble. Mr. Ephraim Swindhurst has improved so far as to be able to sit up a little while each day. Preparatory services were held on Friday evening. Rev. H. W. Rumley, of Georgetown, was the speaker for the evening.

MILTON

Daylight Saving Time will begin in Milton at midnight Saturday, June 15th, and will end at midnight, Monday, September 2nd (Labor Day). Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cowan, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Claridge and son, Ivan, attended the funeral of the late Mrs. George Cowan in Toronto yesterday. Victor Merritt, who has been employed with the late Mr. E. P. Earl, and later with Earl Bros., for the past 22 years, is commencing business for himself. While motoring to Acton last Thursday night via the second line, to attend an L. O. L. concert, George Peacock, of Trafalgar, accompanied by L. Maude, C. Curry, "Andy" Elliott and M. Dryborough, of Milton, met two cars coming east, which crowded his car off the road, causing it to strike a deep hole and roll down a steep embankment. Messrs. Peacock and Maude were seriously injured, while their companions escaped with minor injuries.—Champion.

ROCKWOOD

Mrs. Max Milne was hostess to the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society for their May meeting, which was opened with a hymn and prayer by Mrs. J. D. McNabb. Mrs. Robert Patterson read the first fifteen verses of the twentieth chapter of Matthew, and the Choral readings prayer. Mrs. J. E. Pearen told of the work among the Hungarians, and Miss Jean McLean gave an account of the work done by Miss Mary Murray, Women's Missionary Society hospital worker, in Toronto. Mrs. Milne and daughters, Misses Wilma and Doris, served afternoon tea and the meeting closed with the benediction. On Sunday evening a service was held in St. John's Church, which was well filled to hear Rev. J. S. Harrington, representative of the British and Foreign Bible Society. The evening service at the United Church was withdrawn to enable the congregation to attend the annual meeting of the Bible Society for Rockwood and Everton. On Thursday evening the Rockwood Women's Institute held their monthly meeting in the basement of the Presbyterian Church. The Institute was re-organized for the coming year, with the following officers: President, Mrs. Thos. Wingrove; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. D. McMillan; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. S. Hanna. During the evening a short, varied program was enjoyed, with a vocal solo by Mrs. Wm. Black; a selection by six school boys; and an address by Miss Aris, of Guelph. At the close, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all. Also during the afternoon, the Junior Institute held their monthly meeting, and they had their re-organization for the year. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Max Milne had a birthday party for her daughter, Wilma, when several of her friends and relatives were present and all enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Among those from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Craig and son, Wally, of Toronto; Wilma and Maple Gilbertson, Miss Blanche Milne, of Eden Mills. In connection with the drive for members for the local Horticultural Society, which closed last week, the captains who secured the most members were: Mrs. George Bolton, 13; Mrs. Fred Hamilton, 12; Mr. David McMillan, 11. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Little were in Vergus last Wednesday attending the funeral of the late Dr. A. Groves. Mr. J. J. Aldous was in Hamilton last week as representative of St. John's Church at the Anglican Synod meeting. Recent and week-end visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. George Jacques and daughter, Miss Ina, R. N., Mr. James Frances, of Exeter. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fowler, of Oshawa. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stark and family, of Niagara Falls, N. Y. Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton, of Brantford. Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. LeVine, of Buffalo. Mrs. LeVine is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gardner, for a short time. Mr. John R. Smith left last week for an extended visit in Detroit and other points.

OAKVILLE

The opening of a refreshment stand at the foot of Navy Street featured the discussion at a meeting of the Town Council, held in the Council chambers on Monday night. Mr. W. E. Fielding, who underwent an operation in the Hamilton General Hospital a week ago, is making satisfactory progress. Mrs. O. R. Stacey, accompanied by Mrs. Cora Robinson, of Toronto, sailed on the Duchess of York for England and France, and expect to return home about the end of June. Mrs. Stacey is an aunt of Mrs. A. P. Hughes, Kerr Street. Arrested on Sunday night, by Chief of Police David Kerr, on a charge of being in possession of narcotic drugs, William Pettit, Toronto, was found to have a long criminal record when the police checked up on his activities.—Record. Mrs. D. W. Miller is leaving for Montreal to meet his mother, who is arriving from India. Mrs. Miller will live with her daughter, in Oakville, this summer. A look at the Oakville Harbor indicates a very active season among the yachtsmen. Practically all the boats are in the water at the present time, and many of them are ready for sailing, if they have not already been tried out.—Star.

EDEN MILLS

The Young People of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church presented their play at Campbellville on Friday evening. Mrs. H. M. Taylor has returned home from spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. C. Hardy, of Toronto. Word has been received from Messrs. D. J. Lowrie, Alex. Mitchell and James Wilson, who left last week by motor to seek their fortune in the north. When last heard from they were at Timmins, and expected to go on to Kirkland Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee, of Toronto, have moved to their summer home for the season. Mr. Lee has had a number of men engaged planting somewhere about forty thousand young trees of different varieties. He is making a real beauty spot of his country home.

GEORGETOWN

Mr. A. Stewart, Pipe Major of the Georgetown Pipe Band, has taken up his residence in town, and we welcome him as a citizen. Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Barracough will sail from Montreal to-morrow for England, where they will spend the next two months. Mr. J. B. Mackenzie left this morning for a trip to Bermuda. He sails from Montreal to-night and will be absent about two weeks. Mr. Sid Silver has successfully graduated in Chemical Engineering at the University of Toronto in the recent examinations. Mr. Jack Harrison sang with the Conservatory Quartette at Newmarket on Friday evening and Hamilton on Tuesday evening at Masonic banquets. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Cole, Mrs. Killen, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Cole and son, Ronald, and Mr. John Cole, of Toronto, were visitors with "Mrs. Cole" on Sunday.—Herald.

BURLINGTON

Miss Agnita Wouters leaves on Friday on a holiday trip to Holland. Geo. MacMillan and Jim Kurtz spent the week-end on a fishing trip in Haliburton County. Alfred Poord was knocked off his bicycle by a motor car near the canal on Sunday afternoon, but fortunately escaped serious injury. His wheel was damaged. Mrs. Murdo Macdonald, from England, accompanied by her father on "The Duchess of Richmond," who met her at Quebec, arrived home on Sunday morning. W. Ross Shaver, H. A. Graham, Mayor Watson, G. Moss and Mr. Nichol, of Hamilton, are enjoying a week's fishing at Wilberforce, Haliburton County. Last night at the Grand Inn, the Lions Club was host to the ladies and members of the cast of "Pattie." They were entertained to dinner and also enjoyed a fine talk and moving pictures, as well as a dance. Premier and Mrs. Mitch. Hepburn and party dined at the Estaminot on Sunday evening. They were returning from a trip through the fruit district, and were delighted with the blossoms. J. Selisbury, an engineer from the Department of Public Works, Ottawa, was here on Friday last surveying the properties of Harris Armstrong and Gordon Berry, Brant Street, the site for the new Post Office. Levels were taken, etc., and it is said that tenders will be asked for the new building, possibly in June.—Gazette.

NASSAGAWEYA

The many friends of Mrs. Merwin J. Wilson, of lot 21, concession 2, Nassagaweya, regret to learn of her serious operation on Monday last. We hope she may soon be restored to health again. The Knatchbull group of the Women's Missionary Society of Ebenezer United Church held their monthly meeting in the parlor of the church on Tuesday afternoon. The regular monthly meeting of the Nassagaweya Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Bullard, on Wednesday afternoon, May 16th, with the President, Mrs. A. Padbury, in the chair. The meeting opened by singing the Immaculate Ode, followed with prayer by Mrs. Hardy. The roll call was then responded to by "Why I belong to the Institute." After the business part of the meeting was discussed, Mrs. T. Richardson gave a very interesting paper on "Building Characters." Mrs. A. McPhedran also read a splendid paper on the 38 years of growth of the Women's Institute. The meeting was then favored with a vocal duet by Mrs. T. Richardson and Miss June Frank. Mrs. J. Allison gave a very impressive paper on "Home." Mrs. Rhinehardt and Mrs. J. Simpson then closed by singing several selections from the song sheets, and all repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mr. Frank Reinhardt, of Darbyville, lost a five-year-old horse from lockjaw, caused by running a nail in its foot. The Young People's Society of the Stone Church, Erasmus, gave a play in the Township Hall, Brookville, on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Ebenezer Young People's League. There was a good attendance and the play was well received. Messrs. T. J. Diamond and J. P. Kiehlung were elected Elders of the Ebenezer United Church for three years. The banquet given by the Rockwood United Church Choir and Young People's League in the Ebenezer United Church drew a large congregation, and was much appreciated by all present.

TOWNSHIP OF NASSAGAWEYA

The Municipal Council of the Township of Nassagaweya will meet as a Court of Revision in the Township Hall, Brookville, on Monday, the 13th day of June, 1935, at one o'clock, P. M. All persons having appeals against the Assessment Roll for the said Township for the year 1935 will take notice and govern themselves accordingly. Dated this twenty-third day of May, 1935. JOHN MARSHALL, Clerk.
