BALLINAFAD

Mrs. Charis Noble spent the week-end with friends in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kentner and baby Biddle, of Shelburne, spent Sunday at the former's mother's home, with Mrs. E. Kentner.

Visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Soper were Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacLeod, of Woodstock; Mrs. Margaret Glasgow, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Greaves, Master Alva Greaves, Mrs. Kentner, Miss McFarlane and Miss Switzer, all of Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shortell, of Georgetown visited on Sunday at the home of the former's sister, Miss Annie Shortell. Mr. Wm. Harding's house, on the seventh line, was burned down on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jackson have taken up residence in Erin Village. Rev. Mr. Aitken attended Hamilton Conference sessions in Guelph last week. The rain again on Monday will do good for pasture and spring grain.

LIMEHOUSE

A most enjoyable evening was spent last Monday when the United Church Harmony Club held a banquet, in climax to the very successful contest. Mr. and Mrs. C. Meredith, Miss Gladys Packer and Mrs. W. Gibbs, the social committee. This was followed by a program, consisting of a sing song, violin selections by Helen Zimmerman, Georgetown; readings by Mrs. Fred Anderson and Tom Packer; duets by Marie and Isobel Stephenson; solos by Fred Packer and Dorothy Johnson. Interesting talks on young people's work were given by Kenneth and Norma Stephenson, introducing special features for the summer months and the coming year. The program closed with a few inspiring words from the pastor, encouraging further achievements, after congratulating the members for their past splendid work.

All are looking forward to special monthly meetings during the summer, and a baseball team is being organized, with Dennis Hill as captain, to arrange for a game locally and with other societies within the Presbytery. A meeting of a sub-executive of the Italian Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Stephenson, on Monday evening, with Mrs. Earl Wilson, Ashgrove, as Vice-President, in the chair. Mrs. J. W. Shortell, of Ballinafad, to the office of Secretary of Christian Stewardship and Finance. Other members present were Mrs. G. Aitken, Ballinafad; and Mrs. McDermid and Mrs. Speight, of Georgetown. June 16th will be a very special day in the life of Limehouse United Church, when the tenth anniversary will be held. The morning service will be taken by Rev. R. W. Rumley, of Georgetown, and the evening service by Rev. G. H. Kington, Waterdown. A joint meeting of the Explorers' Club and Mission, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wright on Friday evening, with twenty-one present. After a visit to the lime kilns and a play period on the lawn, a missionary program was conducted by Gwen Hill; worship period by the leader; and dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Wright, who hospitably was much appreciated. Plans were made for the boys and girls to clean the church lawn and to beautify it by planting flowers and shrubs, which has already been started. The Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Stephenson on Thursday afternoon, with the President, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, in the chair. Worship period was conducted, and plans for booths for the garden party arranged for. The autograph quilt blocks are almost completed, and a quilting will take place in the near future. Plans were made to dye the curtains at the church. This was accomplished the following day. As the church has been all freshly cleaned, it was just a touch needed to give inspiration for many days to come. The meeting closed with prayer. Everyone is looking forward to next Sunday, when Limehouse United Church, along with all the United Churches of the Dominion, will celebrate the great achievement of ten years of union. Rev. G. L. Stephenson spent the week-end in Guelph attending Hamilton Conference. During his absence on Sunday the pulpit was supplied by Mrs. Stephenson, who very ably conducted the service and preached on the subject of full consecration to the service of God.

Visitors during the week-end at the parsonage were Mr. George Taylor, Mr. Cecil Byrnie, Miss Dorothy Wapleat, from Owen Sound; John Leach, Mrs. Wm. Ford, Misses Helen and Betty Ford, from Toronto. Garden Party at Limehouse, June 17th. Comedian, Orchestra. Elocutionists, Soloists from Toronto and Guelph; Play: The Kylophonist and others.

EDEN MILLS

We regret to note that a few days ago Master Neil McPhillip suffered another mishap. While doing some light work at home, he cut an artery of his hand, which was so serious he was rushed to Ouelph General Hospital for treatment. While quite weak from loss of blood, he is gaining rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and family, of Detroit, visited relatives in this vicinity quite recently. Miss Thura Gandler was a guest at Mrs. Jas. Berden's over the week-end. Miss L. Williams, of Waterdown, visited friends for a few days.

The ten South Wellington District Annual Meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday, May 29th, in Eden Mills Town Hall. The proceedings opened at 9.30 a. m., with the singing of the Institute Ode, and Mrs. R. P. McWilliams, Rockwood, District President, in the chair. After the minutes of the last meeting were read by the District Secretary, Miss Arley, and adopted, the address of welcome was given by Mrs. Jas. J. Barden, Eden Mills, and this was replied to by Mrs. Brydon, of Eramosa, who also extended an invitation for the District Annual to meet at Eramosa next year. This invitation was accepted.

The annual report of the Secretary-Treasurer was then read, which showed the total receipts to be $158.59, and the total expenditures $111.47, leaving a cash balance on hand of $47.12. The auditors' report was given by Mrs. G. B. Richards, which showed the books to be very well kept. The branch reports were then given, which showed that all twelve branches had put in a very successful year's work. Community singing was then indulged in before the reports of the Standing Committees were given. There were given by the Conveners, as follows: Mrs. Walker, for Relief; Mrs. Palframan, for Agriculture; also report on Health and Immigration; Mrs. J. G. Kitcher's report on Canadian Industries ended up with this little poem, of her own composition:

CANADA God be with dear Canada, This land so full of good; And give us men for leaders, Who believe in brotherhood. Men with a broader vision, Than that of power and greed, Men who believe in sharing 'The burdens of those in need. Then will our dear Dominion Rich and prosperous be, When all men work together In true humility. Mrs. George Lewis, for Home Economics; Mrs. M. Palframan, for Publicity; Mrs. W. Hodkisson, for Education; Miss Jeffrey, for Historical Research; Miss A. Anderson, for Community Activities. Mrs. Campbell, Georgetown, the representative on the Federated Board, then briefly addressed the meeting regarding her work. The meeting adjourned and a delicious lunch was served by the ladies of Eden Mills. The afternoon session opened with an Old-fashioned Dress Parade, which was a delight to all. Mrs. Colliton, Provincial President, and Mrs. Campbell were the judges, and awarded the prizes to Mrs. Horlop, of Rockwood, Juniors; Miss McNeill, of Eden Mills, and Mrs. R. Williamson, of Utoka. Mr. Lawley, Field Secretary of the Institute for the Blind, spoke briefly on his work. Mrs. Colliton, Provincial President, briefly outlined the new co-operative program, and local leadership plan, presented heavily by the recently introduced by the Department of Agriculture. Mr. J. S. Miller, Guelph, gave a very interesting talk on the value of hobbies, which he illustrated with old relics and coins. During the afternoon solos were rendered by Mrs. Somerville; and duets from Mrs. Wm. Early and Mrs. Wm. McLean, which were very much enjoyed by all. The election of Officers then took place, as follows: President, Mrs. A. F. McWilliams, Rockwood branch; Vice-presidents, Mrs. R. Williamson, Utoka; Secretary, Mrs. Palframan, Riverdale; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. J. Arley, Royal; Standing Committee Conveners: Education, Mrs. W. Hodkisson, Riverdale; Health, Mrs. T. Stewart, Royal; Publicity, Mrs. M. Palframan, Riverdale; Home Economics, Mrs. George Lewis, Puslinch; Canadianization, Mrs. Fleming, Riverdale; Legislation, Miss G. Smyth, Eramosa; Community Activities, Mrs. Murray McKenzie, West End; Relief, Mrs. Walker, Royal; Agriculture, Mrs. J. Hutchison, Rockwood Juniors; Historical Research, Miss Jessie Jeffrey, Puslinch; Canadian Industries, Mrs. J. G. Kitcher, Royal; Peace Education and International Relationship, Mrs. Ford, Riverdale; Auditors, Mrs. Connop and Mrs. McCullough. The President was appointed as delegate to the Federation meeting in November, with Mrs. R. Williamson as substitute. A question draw was then conducted, when Mrs. Campbell, of Georgetown, kindly answered all questions asked. The meeting then adjourned with the singing of the National Anthem, and coffee and cake were served by the Eden Mills ladies.

NASSAGAWEXA

The Ladies' Aid of Ebenezer United Church held their monthly meeting in the parlors of the church on Thursday afternoon, with a fair attendance of members. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual garden party.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Byerman and family, of Ingersoll, visited relatives and friends at Brockville over the week-end. The recent rains have made a decided improvement to the appearance of the crops, with prospects looking brighter for a good crop this year.

The many friends of Mrs. Merwin J. Wilson, of Nassagaweya, are pleased to learn she is making satisfactory progress toward recovery, and expects to be home again shortly. A special form of service will be observed next Sunday morning in the Ebenezer United Church to commemorate ten years of church union.

CREWSON'S CORNERS

Fire completely destroyed the residence of David Mennen about one o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The building was a frame structure and one of the oldest houses in the district. Overbeated stove pipes is given as the cause of the fire. Neighbors gathered promptly and were able to save some of the contents, but the house was burned to the foundation. Mr. Mennen is appreciative of the efforts of friends to help in the position he finds himself in the loss of his home, which, with his little family, is quite a handicap.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gamble, of Keomore, N. Y., visited for a few days at their cottage and with friends in Acton. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Guthrie, whose mother passed away on Wednesday morning of last week. The funeral service was held at the Community Church on Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Bennie, of Acton.

McEnery, Mr. and Mrs. M. Thompson attended the 10th anniversary services at Union Church on Sunday. Mr. R. O. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Withers and little son, Ramsey, enjoyed a trip to various points in Quebec last week. While there they enjoyed seeing through various power plants including the Galtneal and Deathbrake.

Wallace Eggle, little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Eggle, who has been undergoing treatment at the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, for the past five weeks, has recovered sufficiently to be able to return home—Advocate.

ROCKWOOD

The play, entitled "An Old-Fashioned Mother," given by the Young People of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church in the Town Hall last Wednesday evening, was well attended and also well presented by the artists who took part, and to the casual observer it was a play with a serious aspect as well of life with its lighter side. At the conclusion of the play, the visiting artists adjourned to the basement of the Presbyterian Church, where refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed. The ratepayers of Rockwood met on Thursday, May 30th, in the Town Hall and elected R. P. McWilliams, Dr. Walter and C. O. Kitching as Trustees of the Hall, in place of Messrs. J. M. Pamoro, Willis R. Harris and A. C. Thomas, who had served for a number of years, and had expressed a desire to be relieved from the position and trust. On Monday evening the Choir and T. I. S. Class of the United Church met to honor one of their members, Miss Leola Hawkins, on the eve of her approaching marriage. Miss Hawkins was presented with handsome and useful presents. A social time, followed by lunch, was enjoyed by all. Week-end and Sunday visitors were: Miss Ella Hamilton, of Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. John Milne, of Eden Mills, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hamilton, who are spending the summer at Eden Mills. Miss Doris Royce, of Toronto. Mr. D. Patterson, of Toronto. Mr. Fred Day, of Toronto.

Miss Kathleen Lynch, of Guelph, and Mrs. LeVinson, of Buffalo. Mrs. LeVinson returned home with her after a fortnight's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gardiner. Miss Irene Hamilton, of Chicago, is home for a holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Max Milne and family spent Sunday at Eden Mills. Members of the family remained over the week-end. Other recent visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Nell Gordon and family, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. John Altheinson; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Altheinson and family, of Brantford. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Murray, of Toronto. Rev. Chas. G. Harris, of Toronto, stopped in the village Saturday morning on his way home from attending the United Church Conference, held in Guelph. Dr. H. D. Livingstone, a former resident of the village, also passed through on Friday. On Sunday, ministers who were in attendance at Conference in Guelph last week assisted in the services at the United Church, with Rev. Mr. Westcott, of Hamilton, speaking in the evening, and Rev. Mr. Irwin, of Millon, in the morning. After the evening service in the United Church the Young People's Society held their weekly meeting, with Mrs. Ben Hoeking in charge. The Society used their new song books for the first time, which are issued by the Conference, and contain many inspiring hymns for young people.
