> Sunday, June 17th, was the occusion of the tenth anniversary of the Limevices at Ohurchill and Glenwilliams were withdrawn for the occasion, and large audiences were present, both morning and evening.

In the morning Rev. R. W. Rumley, of Georgetown, spoke powerfully on the text, "Be of good cheer. I have over come the world." He pointed out that Christian life is one of continuous service and sacrifice. Our fathers have paved the way. Are we holding up the torch for our children? The next generation will depend on how the young people of the present take hold of Christ in service and sacrifice. In the evening service Rev. Mr. Knighton, of Waterdown, gave a most impressive message, taking for his tlieme "Only believe, greater things shall ye do." He brought a strong challenge to faith and prayer, for power of the Holy Spirit. He said that we seem blind, because we think it is mysterious, but it is all to simple, if we just take Christ at His word, and accept Him and He will give us strength for our need. So we in turn can witness by ser-

At both services special music was rendered by the choir. In the evening all enjoyed the solo by Mr. Pred Pucker "The Stranger of Gallice." The day has proved a blessing to many people.

The annual United Church garden party, held on Monday evening last, in spite of the rain, will be placed on record as one of the best and most enjoyable ever held.

utmost capacity. The program was prefaced by a community sing-rong, followed by a program of excellent merit. Instrumental music, in the form of a Hard Time Orchestra, led by Mr. Russell King, violinist, of Guelph, delighted everyone. This consisted of four members, all very ludlerously dressed, appropriate for hard times, playing violin, plano, mouthorgan and washboard. A very pleasing feature was the playing of the xylophone by Mr. Irvine Spiars and daughter, of Guelph, whose selections were very fine well rendered and highly appreciated Vocal music was rendered by Messirs Zeller and Simpson, Guelph, in the The regular meeting of the United form of solos and comic duetts, which created genial good humor, and were very entertaining.
