

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL
WHEREAS, it has been deemed expedient to declare a public holiday on Monday, August 3, 1914, in commemoration of the entry of Canada into the war against Germany; and
WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Government that all our citizens should observe this day as a day of thanksgiving to God for the deliverance of Canada from the perils of war; and
WHEREAS, it is also the desire of the Government that all our citizens should observe this day as a day of thanksgiving to God for the deliverance of Canada from the perils of war;

PROCLAMATION:

CANADA HOLIDA
BY THE GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL

WHEREAS, it has been deemed expedient to declare a public holiday on Monday, August 3, 1914,

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Government that all our citizens should observe this day as a day of thanksgiving to God for the deliverance of Canada from the perils of war;

WHEREAS, it is also the desire of the Government that all our citizens should observe this day as a day of thanksgiving to God for the deliverance of Canada from the perils of war;

C. H. STANNARD,
Secretary of State,
August 2, 1914.

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL
WHEREAS, it has been deemed expedient to declare a public holiday on Monday, August 3, 1914,

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Government that all our citizens should observe this day as a day of thanksgiving to God for the deliverance of Canada from the perils of war;

WHEREAS, it is also the desire of the Government that all our citizens should observe this day as a day of thanksgiving to God for the deliverance of Canada from the perils of war;

C. H. STANNARD,
Secretary of State,
August 2, 1914.

