MARRIAGES

McPHAIL-LAKING

A bower of glad and evergreens was the setting of a lovely wedding at St. David's Church, Campbellville, when Myrtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Laking, was married to Mr. George McPhail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McPhail, of Campbellville. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. C. O. Jones, Campbellville, and the wedding music was played by Miss Edna Laking, of Guelph. Mrs. Wilfrid Laking, Detroit, sang "O Promise Me," and during the signing of the register, "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a dress of pink lace and wore a small blue velvet turban. Her bouquet of roses and forget-me-nots was in perfect harmony with her pink and blue accessories. She was attended by Miss Anna McPhail, who wore a becoming dress of beige lace and net, with brown accessories, and carried a nosegay of roses and forget-me-nots. Mr. Ernest Gausberger, of Windsor, was groomsmen.

A reception took place later at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Laking, who was groomed in a smart blue silk suit, with grey and white accessories, received with the bridal couple and was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a beige and brown ensemble. The couple left on a short motor trip and upon their return will reside in Winona.

LITTLE-HOOPER

In the garden at the home of Mrs. Harvey Gardhouse, fifth line east, Brampton, a wedding took place on Saturday, when her sister, Miss Dorothy May Hooper, was married to Mr. George Leslie Little, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Little, of Brampton, formerly of Crescent Street, Acton. Rev. R. O. Davidson, of Thelveton, officiated. The ceremony took place under an arch decorated with garden flowers, and Miss Edna Grove Little, sister of the bridegroom, played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John Hooper, was groomed in white chiffon fashioned on princess lines, with long sleeves, flowing skirt, and high neckline. She wore a short coat fastened with four pearl and silver clasps, matched by a rope of pearls, and a miniature white gold watch, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of white gladioli and she wore a bandeau of orange blossoms. Her sister, Miss Josephine Hooper, was bridesmaid, groomed in a deep pink chiffon matched by a bandeau of velvet, and her flowers were a sheaf of pale yellow gladioli. Miss June Clarke and Miss Norma Gardhouse, nieces of the bride, were flower girls, in frocks of pale pink. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Norman P. Little.

Following a buffet luncheon and reception, the couple left for a motor honeymoon in Northern Ontario. The bride travelled in a navy coat, trimmed with grey baby fox, with white gloves, was bridesmaid, groomed in a deep pink chiffon matched by a bandeau of velvet, and her flowers were a sheaf of pale yellow gladioli. Miss June Clarke and Miss Norma Gardhouse, nieces of the bride, were flower girls, in frocks of pale pink. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Norman P. Little.

Anderson-Greenaway

A very pretty ceremony, which took place at St. Patrick's Anglican Church, Guelph, on Monday afternoon at three o'clock, marked the wedding of Miss Hazel M. Greenaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Greenaway, and Mr. Clarence O. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson, of Acton. Rev. R. M. Field performed the ceremony, before the altar beautifully decorated with gladioli and fern. White satin bows and asters marked the guest pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin, made on princess lines, the neckline prettily made with ruffles centred with seed pearls. The full sleeves were smocked with seed pearls at the shoulder and wrist and the silk veil, in Esp effect, was arranged with orange blossoms. Her flowers were Johanna Hill roses and heather. Mrs. Helen Loyne, sister of the groom, was matron of honor, groomed in blue net with a turban and a large picture hat of blue chiffon velvet. She carried a nosegay of Somerset roses. Miss Dorothy Warden, in pink with blue moire cash and pink poke bonnet, was bridesmaid, carrying a nosegay of butterfly roses.

Mr. Jack Greenaway was best man and the ushers were Mr. Charles Warden and Mr. Russell Snider. The wedding music was played by Kenneth Greenaway and during the signing of the register the choir sang, "O Perfect Love," and Miss P. Allison, "I Love You Truly."

A reception followed the church ceremony and was held at the Wellington Hotel, where Mr. and Mrs. Greenaway and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson received with the bridal party, the bride's mother wearing a suit of navy blue triple sheer crepe with blue felt hat and blue accessories with corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a powder blue georgette gown, with grey felt hat and corsage of butterfly roses.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left by motor for a trip through the north and east of Ontario, the bride travelling in a brown crepe ensemble with brown felt hat and matching accessories. On their return they will reside at 477 York Road, Guelph. Guests were present from Toronto, Kitchener, Holloway, Owen Sound, Winthrop and Acton.

The busy highway offers few temptations, it is when you turn into by-paths that you find the Devil waiting.

BRIDE HONORED

Miss Hazel Greenaway, of Guelph, who on Monday, became the Bride of Mr. Clarence Anderson, Guelph.

Miss Hazel Greenaway, Guelph, whose marriage took place on Monday, has been the guest of honor on several occasions prior to her wedding.

On Wednesday evening a number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. J. W. Greenaway to tender her daughter, Hazel, a miscellaneous shower in honor of her coming marriage with Mr. Clarence Anderson. The gifts were presented to the guest of honor in a basket decorated with pink and white streamers, with a large white bell hanging from the handle. Music and games were enjoyed during the evening, after which was served a delightful supper.

The friends and co-workers in the Guelph Spinning Mill also honored her with an address and presentation. The address was as follows:

Dear Hazel: On this, the event of your coming marriage, we, your friends and co-workers in the winding, reeling and twisting department, take the pleasure of showing in a tangible form our good wishes, respect and esteem for you.

We therefore ask you to accept this electric grill and electric iron, trusting you may live long to use them, and that they will always be the means of reminding you of the many years you have worked amongst us.

Signed on behalf of all, ETTIE ELLIOTT, WINNIE BRIDGES.

Rather Contradictory Reports re Hydro poor business from a local standpoint, in view of the fact that the increased load called for this additional expenditure of $2,000.

The Superintendent was surprised at the Toronto report. The system had always been under Mr. Stocking's jurisdiction and it was felt this should have been reported previously to the local Commission, $1,500 had been spent last year on maintenance and improvement; $1,100 the year previous; and $1,900 in the year before that. There were 119 ranges now in Acton, and it appeared the power load had grown faster than the maintenance.

Mr. Arnold certainly was not aware of all these faults, but pointed out he had only been on the Commission for six months. Mr. Wilson felt that the system would be in good condition, with part of the work, estimated at $1,100, carried out this fall and the other improvements gradually adopted. It was noted that a part considered most needed of improvement here was not mentioned in the report of the engineer.

The Superintendent was instructed to secure supplies for the improvements on Church Street, as outlined, and proceed with the work at once. Mr. Wilson did not agree that the system was in a deplorable condition and pointed out that the letter following a visit said the system was fairly well maintained. Mr. Wilson was also instructed to have the water connections on Mill Street lowered as arranged before the surface was put on the Mill Street pavement. The Secretary was instructed to endeavor to arrange for the local Commission to again meet the Ontario Commission early in September.

THE DIFFERENCE

An old Negro had just paid the last instalment on a small farm when the realtor who sold it said: "Well, Uncle Joe, I will make you a deed to the farm now since it has been paid for." "How?" the old dandy replied, "If it ain't all de same to you I had much rather you would give me a mortgage to de place." The realtor, somewhat surprised, said, "Uncle Joe, you don't seem to know the difference between a mortgage and a deed." "Well, maybe not," said Uncle Joe reluctantly, "but I owned a small farm once to which I had a deed and de Post National Bank had a mortgage and de bank got de farm."

THE RESULT

Nutt: "I wonder if dyeing the hair is really as dangerous as some of the doctors say?" Pitt: "You bet it is. An uncle of mine tried it once, and within a month he was married to a widow with seven children."

FASHION FABLES

He has too much at stake to risk losing your trade or your confidence. You can depend on him. He is not in business for to-day or to-morrow only—but for next year and ten years from next year. He knows the value of good-will. You get better merchandise at a fairer price than he could ever hope to sell it if he did not have the larger volume of business that comes from legitimate advertising and goods that bear out the promise of the printed word.
