LIMEHOUSE

The Harmony Club of the United Church met on Priday evening last, when a most interesting time was spent. After a period of song, worship was conducted by Dennis Hill. The business session resulted in the filling of three vacancies in the Executive, President, Dennis III'l Literary Convener, Charles Douglas; and Recreational Leader, Kenneth Stephenson. Plans were made to carry on contest similar to the one held last year. Pollowing the suggestion of the Young People's Conference at Whitby, a study of the four political platforms was made The Conservative was presented by Mrs Stephenson; Liberal, Tom Packer; Reconstruction, Chas. Douglas; and C. C. P. by Mr. Stephenson. It was understood that the speakers were not necessarily presenting their own platforms, but those laid down by leaders of the several parties, and much instructive information was received. The meeting closed with singing and prayer. Quite a number of falk from the United Church congregation attended anniversary services held in Olen Williams on Sunday last, both morning and evening, under the able direction of Rev. Mr. the Presbyterian Church on Sunday.
