Anniversary of Knox Church Observed on Sunday and Monday

Rev. T. G. Marshall, of Hespeler, and Rev. Dr. Rochester, of Toronto, were the special speakers at the services on Sunday—Good Congregations and Anniversary Music—Fowl Supper Held on Monday Evening with Program by Local Talent and an Enjoyable Occasion.

Splendid congregations joined in observing the anniversary last Sunday of Knox Presbyterian Church and enjoyed the special speakers, music and features of an anniversary occasion. A little departure from the usual order was made in that each service had a different speaker.

In the morning Rev. T. G. Marshall, M. A., of Hespeler, was the minister. His discourse was based on the 37th and 39th verses of Matthew 22: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind . . . Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

Here was the clearest presentation of the whole duty of man that the world had ever received. There is only one law-giver who lives through the ages—Jesus Christ. His was the law of love. In the first place it was God's great love for us that keeps us from evil. God's barriers against evil are conscience, advice of friends, mother's love, the call of the church. But God's love is the greatest gift of all. Love is man's supreme duty.

It is in the field of every-day living where love needs to be cultivated. It is easy indeed to be selfishness of far off duties and neglect the duties near us. Church and missionary work are good and also preaching. These tasks are only secondary, however, to the other great task, "Thou shalt love."

Christ's life teaches us how to per-

Burton, F. J. Salt and George Musseloe. The choir anthem was "Bless the Lord, O My Soul," and the solo part was taken by Mrs. H. P. Mowat.

The congregation during the day contributed a liberal offering to the special anniversary collection.

On Monday evening the anniversary fowl supper, provided by Knox Church Ladies' Aid, was largely attended and ample justice was done to the many good things provided by these ladies, who have an enviable reputation for the delicacies they provide.

During the supper hour, the church organist, Mr. F. J. Salt, played several popular selections; and the Sunday School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Rudolph Spielvogel, rendered orchestral numbers.

Rev. H. L. Bennie, M. A., minister of the church, was the chairman for the program that followed, which included: Readings by Miss Mary Grindell; Mrs. George Desautels; Miss Frances Hurst and Rev. O. G. Jones; vocal solos by Mrs. H. P. Mowat, Miss Eileen Atkinson, Mr. Wm. Burton and Mr. Johnston, student minister, Knox Presbyterian Church, Irish tenor; numbers by a male quartette, Messrs. V. B. Rumley, R. Spielvogel, George Simpson and Jas. K. Smith; cornet solos by Mr. Chas. W. Landsborough; brass quartette, Messrs. Gibson, Simpson, Easterbrook and Landsborough;

B. Y. F. U. Meeting

On Tuesday evening the regular weekly meeting of the B. Y. F. U. was held in the class room at the Baptist Church. Miss Sadie Cripps had charge of the meeting. Mr. Stanley Cripps read the scripture lesson, John 15. Miss Barbara Plank sang as a soprano solo, "My Allie Country." Bakers of Three Counties Meet

The bakers of Halton, Peel and Dufferin Counties met at the McElgin Hotel, Georgetown on Monday evening last. There was a large attendance and a very successful meeting was held. Baking business in general was discussed and the standard price for bread over the three Counties was set at 8c per loaf and 7c per loaf wholesale. Bread is already 8c per loaf in most towns, but the bakers of this district decided to wait a couple of weeks and see what the price of flour will be under the new government.

To Buy New Library Books

At the meeting of Acton Free Library Board on Monday evening, the newly-elected member, Rev. E. Brillinger, was welcomed by the chairman, Mr. A. T. Brown. Authority was also given for the purchase of an encyclopedia for use at the library. The advisability of taking advantage of the travelling library arrangement was considered. The chairman reported recommendations and suggestions which had been made by Inspector Jennings on his recent visit. The new quarters were commended by the inspector on this visit. The book buying committee will make their purchases next week.

The Careful Driver

We often hear of the careless driver in the court and in the newspaper, so that possibly an example of the careful driver would be news. The incident happened on Mill Street on Tuesday morning. Cars were parked on both sides of the street and a little one of about five or six years darted across the road, unheeding the approach of a local truck, loaded with coal. She went right in front of the truck. The driver swerved and applied his brakes. Coal went flying over the roadway but the little truck was not under the truck but back on the sidewalk. The driver gathered up the spilled coal from the pavement. We like to write this story of the careful driver. It is better news than the other stories. And the driver was Mr. Roy Agar, of Ritchie & Agar, Acton.

The MacArthur-Nelson Wedding

A wedding of local interest and of exceptional interest at The Park Paces office was solemnized on Thursday last when two members of the staff of this office, Mr. Robert MacArthur and Miss M. S. Nelson were married. The ceremony took place at the United Church Parsonage and was performed by Rev. Dr. E. M. Morrow. The bride was, comelyly attired in a gown of chartreuse velvet, with turban to match, and carried a bridal bouquet of white Baby Mums. The couple were attended and the ceremony was attended by the immediate friends and members of the family. Following the wedding supper Mrs. and Mrs. MacArthur left on a honeymoon motor trip, spent in Detroit, London and other western points. For travelling the bride wore a navy blue coat of diagonal suede, with blue wool collar and blue and white suit of wool, with hat and matching accessories. Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur will reside on Main Street.

Two Injured in Plane Crash at Guelph

Victims of an aeroplane crash in a field on the Kurn farm, just outside the northern city limits of Guelph, on Saturday afternoon, Reginald Parsons, 85 Port Street, Brantford, commercial pilot, and William Davis, North Bay, both 27, were reported in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph. The plane, which had gone to that city to take passengers on flights over the city, was attempting a landing when it went into a nose dive while travelling low. It struck the ground with considerable force and, after bounding about 30 feet, came to rest with the engine torn from its supports. Parsons, who was piloting the machine, suffered severe concussion and a badly cut forehead when he was thrown against the front of the cockpit, while Davis, owner of the plane, who was piloted in the front seat, was assisted from the wrecked Moth by farmers, who were working in a nearby field. He is suffering from shock and leg injuries received when the engine was forced back as it struck the ground. The pilot, who was most severely injured of the two, was unconscious for some time after being admitted to the hospital. He was unable to explain the cause of the crash.

TRAVEL STORY

By Rev. Dr. Morrow Features Splendid Evening of the Unity Men's Club Last Week

On Wednesday evening of last week, the Unity Men's Club of the Acton United Church attempted their first concert and were indeed gratified with the success that was accorded their effort, there being an audience present that largely filled the auditorium of the church.

During the assembling of the audience, and at intervals during the program, an orchestra of fourteen pieces rendered musical selections that were much appreciated.

Rev. Dr. E. M. Morrow, the pastor, and teacher of the Sunday School class in connection with the Unity Men's Club, introduced the President, Mr. Jack Reid, who was the pleasing and efficient chairman for the evening.

The following musical and literary numbers were included in the program: Vocal solo, "The Good Ship Lollipop" and "Robin Redbreast," Master Billie Vincent; reading, "Kentucky Philanthropy," J. Gordon Ramsden; brass quartette numbers, Messrs. George Simpson, Norman Gibson, Chas. Landsborough and Lloyd Easterbrook; harmonica duets, Nicol Bros.; vocal trios, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "When I Grow Old," by Messrs. Parkison and Gibson; cornet solos, Mr. Chas. Landsborough; Hawaiian guitar numbers, Mr. Roy Denny; violin solos, Mr. Norman Brada; bass horn solo, Mr. Norman Gibson; saxophone trio numbers, Messrs. Parkison, Ramsden and Agnew. Dr. E. J. Nelson, Messrs. Dan Taylor and Chas. Landsborough were the accompanists for the evening, the program being provided entirely by men.

The second part of the program was entitled "The Rose and Shamrock," and was a travelogue talk by Rev. Dr. Morrow, who, as a member of the Victoria College Glee Club, had visited the Old Land, Wales, England and Ireland, on a music tour. Dr. Morrow told of the calling on the S. S. "Royal George," and experiences on board ship. Of the arrival at the port of Bristol and things of historical interest seen in the Old Land, including a trip to London, and places visited there.

The audience was taken to the Isle of Man, where, on that particular morning, from a mountain thereon, it was possible, owing to the clearness of the atmosphere, to see four countries, England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, and the Isle of Man.

Dr. Morrow also told of his trip to Ireland and personal experiences he had there.

Dr. Morrow is a delightful and interesting narrator, and, although the hour was growing late, his audience listened with good attention to his recital. Following the travelogue, refreshments were served in the basement of the church, when a delightful time was spent and the men of the Unity Club had charge of all arrangements, including the making of the sandwiches and coffee, and the serving of the lunch.

BURGLARS PAY SECOND VISIT TO ACTON

Their Car Is, However, Detained This Time and Pair are Charged and Drop Their Loot

Using the same car that figured in the robbery at the Acton Machine Co. plant last week, thieves entered the premises early Sunday morning again and were making off with a battery from one of the cars when they were stopped by Night Constable Harrop and dropped the battery and, in the dark, made a get-away.

Seeing the same car parked near the premises, Constable Harrop had removed the key from the ignition lock before going to the Acton Machine Co. plant to investigate. The thieves were, therefore, unable to use their car in their flight and it was put in storage. A search of the car revealed three large balls of jam, manufactured by a Brantford firm.

Chief McPherson and provincial police, with citizens, joined in the search of the district all Sunday morning, but were unable to locate the thieves. On Monday evening the proprietors of the jam factory identified their goods, which had been taken from the plant in Brantford.

Entrance to the Machine Company building was this time made by breaking one of the windows and then operating a ventilating section by the chain on the window. One suspect has been arrested in Guelph and another suspected of the crime has just recently been released from Kingston penitentiary.

Later, the area will be stocked by the government with quail, ring-necked pheasants, and Hungarian partridge.

Burglars Busy in Guelph on Week-end

Another series of week-end break-ins, which have been prevalent in Guelph recently, occurred when burglars forced entrance to Marshall's drug store and Silverwood's Dairy some time Saturday night. Less than one hour after the store closed for business burglars forced an entrance into the rear of Frank Marshall's drug store, on Wyndham Street. The thieves secured $25 from the till and took several valuable cameras. At Silverwood's Dairy, however, the robbers were unable to open a large safe, containing a considerable sum of money, but did succeed in breaking off the combination. Nothing else was taken.

Mason addressed the men relative to the forming of an orchestra of club members, and it was decided to make a start with this project immediately. It is the intention to also form a glee club and a dramatic club within this organization. A discussion was held with regard to the Club joining the Y. M. C. A. as a body. This matter was left to Messrs. W. Ramsden and G. Maasals, as a committee to interview Mr. Alex. MacLaren, Y. Secretary. Following the business, group games were held, under the direction of Mr. G. Mr. M. Nixon addressed the Council regarding the charges on water used at the creamery. He felt that the charges now in force were too heavy, especially in comparison with other municipalities. The report was adopted. Advice was received from the legal department of the Municipal World that if the Y.M.C.A. building was assessed and owned by the Corporation, it was quite in order for the municipality to pay the taxes. Council agreed that this procedure was the method to be taken in the payment of taxes on this municipally-owned building and so instructed the Clerk.

It was reported that the shoe factory building was badly in need of repairs to the eavetroughing to avoid damage to the building.

A letter from the Public Utilities Commission drew to the attention of the Council the excessive breakage of street lamps and asked the co-operation of the Council in stopping this damage. Chief McPherson reported on his investigations on this matter and the boys who were involved in this and other depredations about town. The Chief was instructed to proceed with an investigation and if necessary to lay charges and make prosecutions. All catapults were to be confiscated and the offenders fined, as provided by law.

A letter from Mr. C. McLaughlin stated he was willing to accept $25 for damages and the doctor's bill of $25.50, suffered through injury he received in an accident on the street. Council agreed to pay the doctor's account, but felt they were in no respect liable for the injury.

Proof of an advertisement to be inserted in Industrial Canada, regarding the shoe factory building, was received and approved by the Council.

The by-law providing for municipal nominations and the holding of elections, if necessary, and appointment of Deputy Returning Officers was given the required reading and investigations and if necessary, nominations were set for November 22nd, and polling day as December 2nd. The Clerk was instructed to make inquiry regarding the licensing of slot machines within the municipality. Councilor McMillan, Chairman of the Town Hall Committee, was instructed to have the roof of the Town Hall repaired. The entrance at the Town Hall was also to be repaired and painted.

The Clerk was instructed to advertise for tenders for gaveltroughing of the shoe factory building. Council decided that the drainage of Mill Street would be continued from Wilbur Street to the C. N. R. crossing.

ADDRESS ON JAPAN

Feature of St. Alban's Young People's Meeting—Mr. Stuart Lowrie Gave Interesting Glimpse of Japanese Customs

After a short business meeting, last Tuesday night, the members of St. Alban's Young People's had the pleasure of listening to Mr. Stuart Lowrie, recently home from Japan.

In view of the present international situation, and Japan's supposed connection with Ethiopia, Mr. Lowrie's talk on Japan was especially interesting. This speaker for the meet got an entirely different angle on Japan and the Japanese people.

In his contact with the Japanese and his experiences amongst them, Mr. Lowrie has found them, generally speaking, easy to know superficially, but hard to know intimately; that as his knowledge of them increases, so his understanding of them decreases. In the eyes of the Westerner, the Oriental thinks backwards; he saws wood backwards; even his method of determining age is unique. It is this entire difference in their mental outlook that causes such difficulties in the international relationships of the west with the east.

Mr. Lowrie's account of the Cherry Blossom Festival was especially fascinating. To the Japanese, the loveliness of the cherry blossoms is something sacred and inspiring. Cherry blossom time has as much significance for them as our Christmas and Easter have for us. The employers allow holidays to their employees, and all over the country the Japanese go out to look at the blossoms—just to look and meditate, often for a day at a time.

Mr. Lowrie pointed out that Japan is a country of about the same size as Saskatchewan, with a population of ninety million, and that sooner or later she must expand. For that reason the League of Nations might have soon a problem on its hands, similar to the one at the present time.

Contrary to popular opinion, there is not sweated labor in Japan; but for some reason or other, the Japanese are able to manufacture more cheaply than other countries. The yen, which is worth about twenty-five cents, has a purchasing power greater than our dollar, which explains why the Japanese appear to live more cheaply than western people.

Of all races, Mr. Lowrie considers the Japanese to be fundamentally the happiest, and although he cannot understand them, he likes them, because they are a courageous, courteous people. Mrs. Alger, on behalf of the A.Y.P.A., moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Lowrie for his delightful talk.

Miss Hunt gave a solo, "Smile Through Your Tears." The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

KNOX PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, ACTON
Where Anniversary Services were Celebrated last Sunday

form our duty to God and man. Jesus' life was a life of love. He showed that hate could be avoided if we could put ourselves in the other fellow's place. He showed the way. One of our biggest troubles is that we do not know each other. We must get the spirit of being a friend to man.

The musical part of the service included a solo by Mrs. H. P. Mowat, and the anthem by the choir, "The Glory of God in Nature."

Rev. Dr. Rochester, Editor of the Presbyterian Record, was the minister at the evening service. Associated with him in the service was the pastor, Rev. H. L. Bennie and Rev. Dr. Morrow, of the United Church, whose congregation joined with that of Knox Church on this anniversary occasion.

Dr. Rochester, in his opening remarks, spoke of his work as editor of the church publication and its value to the congregation. His text was based on the third chapter of first Timothy, "These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth."

The speaker said there was something more profound needed than good behaviour in church. It isn't sufficient that property be accepted as a standard of worship. Good conduct was necessary, not only on Sunday but every day, and everywhere. The appeal was not as worshippers but as membership in the Church of the Living Christ.

There is usually a standard in every organization and this standard is always being raised. There is the family honor, the honor of the Englishman and his standard of justice and fair play, and a similar standard should be maintained in our relationship to our church. "The church is a place to share burdens."

There are distinctive features of the church. Goodness—the preservation of the spirit of unity. Work or service, the using of our abilities and efforts in church work. It is not a service of comfort or ease. Dr. Rochester illustrated his various points with a wealth of fitting illustrations to bring the messages home to the congregation.

The music, under the direction of Choirmaster and Organist J. J. Stall, was again at this service very appropriate and well rendered. It included solos by Mr. Green, of Toronto; quartette number by Messrs. A. K. Mann, W.

piano duet, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Salt; violin solo, Master Vernon Agnew. Rev. Dr. Morrow brought greetings from the United Church; Rev. Mr. Kay, from Warton Presbyterian Church; and Rev. C. G. Jones from Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church.
