Dear Priends:

On learning that you are about to leave us, a number of your friends and acquaintances of Limehouse community, of which you have been members for over fifteen years, have assembled to-night, just to say we are corry to see you go, and to spend a few happy hours with you. Through your business ability as storekeepers and postmaster, you have held an important and useful place in our midst and have added much to the happiness and advancement of the community.

You, Mr. Johnson, have been an active member of the church, holding such offices as member of the Board of Stewards, Recording Steward, which office you held with the highest efficiency; Trustee Board and Sunday School Superintendent for several years. In these capacities the church will miss you.

And you, Mrs. Johnson, have been President of the Women's Association and a member of the Official Board, both offices of which you have filled creditably. We will miss your helpful service, pleasant disposition, and cheery amile.

And Evelyn, you have been useful in the Choir, Sunday School, Young People's work, as well as taking your place in community life. We are glad you are going to be with us a while longer. We will miss Harold, Wilfred, Dorothy and other members of the family, all of whom have endeared yourselves to us.

We have shared your Joys and sorrows, and believe you have shared ours. We have been partners in community life. We are sorry to see you go, but since this is your decision, our best wishes and prayers go with you to your new place of abode, where we all wish you the highest success in home, church and . community life.
