EDEN MILLS

A very pleasant event took place on Wednesday evening, when the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Nell McPhail gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McPhail to do honor to them on the occasion of their marriage. Mr. Ken Wallace asked Mr. and Mrs. McPhail to come forward, and read the following address: Mr. and Mrs. Nell McPhail: We, your friends, neighbors and members of the Young People's Society and congregation, have gathered to-night to extend to you congratulations of the event that made you one, and to convey to you our best wishes and our hope and prayers for your continued happiness in the years to come. To extend in a tangible way our felicitations to you, we ask you to accept these gifts on behalf of all here assembled as symbolic of our esteem for you both, individually and as a group. Our prayers are that God may richly bless both you and yours, and that your efforts may be crowned with success. At the proper time, Mr. Wilfred Bridle and Mr. Robert Stevens presented them with a clock and pyrex plate. Mr. McPhail, although taken completely by surprise, very ably thanked them, on behalf of himself and his bride. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. George McPhail and Mr. Donald McPhail motored from Winona to attend the presentation to their brother. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Milne, Jr., and Miss Joan White, of Acton, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Milne. The Council instructed the Chief of Police, David Kerr, to purchase a police radio, for use of the department, at their meeting on Monday evening. Doug Wilson, prominent in local hockey circles, had the misfortune to lose the first joint of the index finger on his right hand on Saturday morning. Three cars piled up on Saturday evening on the Toronto highway about two and a half miles east of town. As a result of the accident, Joe Kaminski, Kerrwood, Ontario, will appear in local court on a charge of reckless driving. The Oakville Intermediates lost their first exhibition game to the fast skating "Midlanders" on Wednesday evening. Despite the conclusion that the score is bound to convey, the boys did very well.—Record. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fleury were called to Wingham to attend the funeral of the former's brother-in-law, John W. Dodd, on Monday afternoon. A banquet in the Masonic Temple, Friday evening, marked the opening of the newly organized White Oak Social Club. Rev. G. W. Tobbs, Burlington, "Old Man Simultaneous" of radio fame, was the guest speaker, and gave an illustrated address on a motor trip to Mexico City. The jury inquiring into the death of Desmond Wilson, ten-year-old Drontoboy, who was accidentally shot by a chum, returned a verdict of accidental shooting, but strongly recommended that minors be more carefully checked in the handling of firearms, and the sale of ammunition to minors be under stricter supervision.—Star.

NOW

Now is the constant syllable ticking from the clock of time. Now is the watchword of the wise. Now is the banner of the prudent. Let us keep this little word always in our minds, and whenever anything presents itself to us in the shape of work, whether mental or physical, we should do it with all our might, remembering that Now is the only time for us—that Now is ours; that Then may never be.
