A very pleasant event took place at the when the residents of School Section No. of the Presbyterian Church gathered to do honor to the school teacher, Mr. W. Bridle, on the occasion of his approaching marriage. After the gathering had assembled, Mr. W. McLean was chairman for the short program. Mr. Bridle was called forward and Mr. Scott read wood. the following address:

S. S. No. 5, Nassagaweya Dear Mr. Bridle: At this very pleasant gathering of the residents of School Section No. 5 Nausagaweya, we cannot allow the occasion to pass without expressing to you cur hearty congratulations on your approaching marriage and our very best wishes for your future happiness and prosperity.

During the three years we have known you, you have by your courtesy, thoughtfulness and interest in the worth-while things in the com munity, greatly endeared yourself to-us. You have been untiring in your efforts to promote not only the interests of the children, over which you have charge, but to develop within the community at large a greater interest in and an appreciation of the religious side of life, to which, in this material age, we are inclined to attach little importance. Especially your work among the young people, which has been conducive not only to their social and intellectual development, but to a pure moral atmosphere among them has been greatly valued and appreciated. As a slight token of our esteem, we would ask you to accept these gifts. May they provide some little comfort in happy marriage relation-
