IN MEMORIAM

SOOPER—In loving memory of my dear husband, Alfred Sooper, who passed away June 10th, 1935.

Time rolls on, we are reminded
Of all the words he said to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more;
To see his loving face
And greet him at the door.

SISTERS

McEachern—In loving memory of our dear brother, John Angus, who passed away June 10th, 1935.

When God took him, oh so quickly,
And we all in bloom were thrust
No one he loved was at his side
To hear his parting sigh;

How oft there comes before us,
His face, so kind and true;
For death can never take away
Our memories, dear, of you.

NOT THERE

The habitual grocer was holding forth as usual in the village grocer's about the price and quality of the goods.

"What do you want—the earth?" exclaimed the grocer in exasperation. His customer, gathered up her string bag and fired a parting shot.

"Not in my sugar, I don't!" she said, witheringly.

NEEDED THE MONEY

"Who Will Drive This Car Away for $500?" read a sign in a window of a used car dealer.

A man stopped at the window, read the sign and after some thought entered the store.

"I will take a chance," he offered. "Where's the money?"

The LITTLE BOX SOME OBSERVATIONS

Dear Papa Pass: I still read your pages. But it is surprising how the persons and places are becoming less and less familiar.

Matters in the Diamond Anniversary of the United Church building seem to be well under way, with a fine staff of assisting speakers. When the project was first mooted, I rather fondly hoped that the farthest back pastor still surviving, Rev. J. A. McLachlan, M. A., might have a place in the program.

To show the march of time, this organ recess has been in existence about three-fifths of the time of the building itself. And further, the United Church phase of the institution has been already over a tenth of the time. When the building was opened it was just a year after the Methodist Church of Canada was fused by the former Wesleyan and New Connexion elements, which had little local significance.

A very small boy gazed into the writer's face a few days ago and said, "You must have seen a good many years." Answering him that he was correct, on being asked how many he had seen, he replied, "Six. We have our car five years; and I remember getting it." How many more events will be built into that storehouse of recollection we cannot now tell.

To show the straightforward thought of childhood, a lad of my acquaintance having a left-hand finger, which was injured catching a ball, attended to, a sympathizing playmate looking on said, "It is a good thing that it was not the hand you shoot marbles with!"

Reading also to-day of Mrs. Clarke's stoneboat experience, on "Ginger Funn," with its unattractive features, recalled what was recently related to the writer of a youth, evidently unacquainted with department store escalators, watching the people stepping off on arrival at top, took in his head to go too, but stepped on the wrong way, so that he would have been better, even on a stoneboat. "Never again," also, for him.

Yours,
J. S. COLEMAN.

SCOUT MOTHERS MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Scout Mothers' Auxiliary, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. VanGoszen on Monday night.

brought in three counters for the local boys to give them a big lead. Acton were having little success with Clement's pitching and went down in order in the second. Leppar also started burning them in and Milton were given a goose egg for the second.

The fourth frame was Acton's big rally, when they showed across two runs. They should have had three or four, but Lindsay, who singled and stole second, got caught sleeping and was thrown out by the pitcher. After this a single and three errors brought in Acton's two runs.

Acton retired in order in the fifth, but a triple by Norm Morton, in the sixth, and an error to the catcher, brought in the third and final counter. It looked like Acton was going to tie the score in the last frame when J. Waterhouse walked, Leppar went out at first, bus Morton fanned, then Terry was supposedly walked to get at "Minute," who once again went down hitting the air, and finishing the game with a win for Milton.

BRIDE HONORED

Last evening employees of the Mason Knitting Company honored a fellow-employee, Mrs. Fred Wilds, Jr. (nee Mae Bruce) when in honor of her recent marriage she was presented, on their behalf, with a clock by Mrs. R. Burt.

We wish you might but happiness For all your wedded years; May health and wealth and joy be yours, Sprinkled by few tears.

May all the "little things" of life Grow larger in your care; And wisdom fill the happy years As silver streaks your hair.

We know you'll always do your best bravely when dangers lurk; But it's just a small reminder, "Don't be late for work!"

TO GIVE NEEDED INTERNAL EXERCISE

Meals that are low in "bulk" are a common failing of the average American diet. Frequently, these meals result in irregular habits.

Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" is often a consequence. This condition causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches and loss of appetite. Even serious disease may develop.

Two tablespoons daily, with milk or cream, are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

How much pleasanter to enjoy this natural food in place of pills and drugs. Serve ALL-BRAN either as a cereal, or cooked into muffins, breads, etc. Eat it regularly for regular habits.

ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont. "Constipation due to insufficient 'bulk'."

TO AVOID MOTOR ACCIDENTS

Following is a valuable list of rules for the guidance of both children and adults in connection with motor traffic.

- 1. Don't ever ride with strangers. 2. Always walk on the left hand side of the road and get clear of the road when you meet an automobile. 3. Don't ever cross a road or highway until you are sure there are no cars coming from either direction. 4. Don't attempt to cross an intersection until you are certain that there is plenty of time. 5. If you see an accident go for help quickly. 6. Keep clear of the wreck. Let grown people give aid to the injured.

Juveniles Lose Their First Game

Oakville Won by 9-3 Score in the Opening Game

Acton Juveniles also got off to a shaky start in their opening game last Thursday night, when Oakville came out on top with a 9-3 win. It was a seven inning fixture, and the locals were held off the score sheet until the final innings, when they gathered in three tallies.

ELDERS MAKE PRESENTATION TO MR. A. LEES

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lees, who will leave this week for Scotland were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Henkle at the Manse. Here the Elders of the church called and Mr. Alex. McDonald, on their behalf, presented Mr. Lees with a leather travelling bag.

"Dear Mr. Lees: Perhaps we have come upon you by stealth to-night, but we have done it with no intention of stealing, unless it be a little of your time and attention. We have enjoyed your fellowship with us in this Session of Knox Church, as we have passed through trying times and in times of 'good weather.' You have given of your time and devotion in the work of our Master, and have been true to that sense of duty that marks the character of an Elder in the Presbyterian Church. As our Clerk you initiated us to the system of keeping a complete record of our several districts and the need for accuracy. You are now about to leave us and take your departure to your native land. After such a long sojourn as you have made in our midst, it seems as if you are leaving a place that has become native to you. We regret your going, but remember that such qualities as you possess can not be given to one place alone. May you always find a church to go to and a Session to be associated with as you have done here. The work of the Lord needs willing helpers these days and cheerful hearts. We would like you to make this moment in your history as in ours by some appreciable thing. So we ask you to accept from us, this token. May it be a sign and a seal to you of our friendship and brotherly love; and as the days of the future come upon you, may it find you turning back to those that have been forged here in Knox and particularly here in Knox Church Session, where you have played your part as elder and co-worker."

"We ask the rich blessing of God to be upon you and upon Mrs. Lees as you set out on your journey and turn your face once more towards 'home.' With the Session's best regards and affections,
H. L. BENNEE, Moderator,
W. K. GRAHAM, Clerk.

DEGRADED IT WOULD HELP

An irate woman entered a shop in a suburban district. Speaking to the grocer, she said: "Those eggs you sent up to my house last week weren't very nice."

"I'm sorry, madam," said the grocer. "In fact, I'm surprised. Those eggs were graded."

"Graded," said the customer, contemptuously. "Well, mine were degraded."
