Open Air Service Sunday Evening

First of Community Events Arranged to be Held in Park on Sunday

The Acton Ministerial Association has arranged for the first of the Sunday evening open air services for next Sunday. It will be held in Acton Park, and will, judging by former experiences, prove quite an event, and be largely attended.

DROWNED AT LOWVILLE

Urged not to go swimming by his employer, who had had a premonition of danger, Carman Sherwood, aged 28, of Freeman, was drowned at Lowville dam, eight miles from Milton, on Sunday night, while two score other swimmers looked on. Sherwood, who was not a strong swimmer, called out to other bathers that he was going to cross the 30-foot pond, and had only one foot ten feet when he sank. Spectators, thinking he was only fooling, did not go to his aid until Roy Powell and Howard Coulson became alarmed. Divers were unable to locate the body, and it was not recovered until the pool was drained of nearly 15 feet of water. It is thought the man was stricken with a heart attack when attempting the crossing.

Mrs. W. J. Gray returned home on Tuesday and is convalescing after undergoing treatment at the Guelph General Hospital. She has been with her son, at Delhi, and daughter, at Acton, during the past few weeks.—Advocate.

Road work should be a relief from relief. How about paving the second line from Milton to Acton this year?

On the eve of his eightieth birthday anniversary, George Bernard Shaw, world-famous dramatist, announced his retirement from public speaking. "I have retired from public speaking, I am far too old. Obituary

MRS. JOHN T. SECORD

A former well-known resident of Acton, Mrs. Sarah Jane Secord, widow of the late John T. Secord, passed away on Friday at the "Elliott Home," in Guelph, in her ninetieth year. Mrs. Secord had resided in Guelph for about twelve years. Her husband predeceased her in February, 1920. They had resided in Orillia previously, where for forty years Mr. Secord was engaged in the real estate business. Mr. and Mrs. Secord spent their early married life in Acton, where both took a keen and active interest in the community affairs.

Three sisters remain, Mrs. Zelman Hall, of Hamilton; Mrs. Swenson, of Long Beach, California; and Mrs. McLaughlin, of Dauphin, Man. The funeral was held on Saturday, with a private service in Guelph at the funeral home of P. A. Mitchell, Rev. Archdeacon C. P. Scovill, of St. George's Anglican Church officiated at the service there and at the graveside. Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

WILLIAM LLOYD ALLAN

General sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Roland Allan and family in the death, last Thursday, of their fifteen-year-old son, Lloyd, at the Guelph General Hospital. A week previously Lloyd had been taken ill and the trouble was diagnosed as appendicitis. An operation was immediately performed, but complication developed and he passed away. He was a bright lad, keenly interested in farming, and for the past year or so had been with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Agitt, on their farm at Ospringe, where he was as beloved as in his own home. Boyhood friends and friends of the family mourn with them in the passing of this young life, just entering into young manhood.—Besides the bereaved parents, one brother, Ellwood, remains.—Evidence of the sympathy felt was shown in the largely attended funeral on Saturday afternoon, when the service at the home on Guelph Street, Acton, was conducted by Rev. Dr. E. M. Morlow, assisted by Rev. H. L. Bennie. Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery, Acton. The pallbearers were Eric McEneaney, Harvey McCutcheon, Bert Crewson, Wilmer Davidson, Ken Stubbington and Harry Peavoy. Flower bears were Allan Perryman, Lloyd McLean, Charlie Tyler and Leo Glace.

Floral tributes included those from Grandpa and Grandma Agitt; pillow from the family; wreath from Grandpa and Grandma Allan; sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Allan and family; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Agitt and family; Mr. and Mrs. James Byrdon; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Peavoy and family; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cleave; Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean and family; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bewick and Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Perryman and family; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKinnon and family; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes and family; Mr. and Mrs. G. B. C. Ovington; Davidson family; wraith Mrs. Ralphy and Owen-dale; Habel, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Murray; and donations from foreman and employees of Car Side Department and from the Warehouse Department of Beardmore Leathers, Ltd.

A Letter from Northern Ontario

Dear FREE PRESS:

A few lines again are made possible by my continued ability to write. These are the happy days, when to quote Sydney Smith, "there is nothing left for it but to take off my teeth and sit in my bones." For most of us, no matter how strong the mental urge, this is a difficult task so we will just concentrate on the duties to be performed, drink lots of good old Adam's ale, and stop thinking and talking about the heat.

But really that is a difficult thing to do this year, when such terrible havoc is being wrought all over the country, to crops of every description. The situation becomes serious when the country's living is jeopardized, as it is now being.

God, must surely have a reason. We ought, in this northern part of the country, to get down on our knees in thankfulness for the wonderful showers that have come to keep the earth moist and beat from suffering. The heat is intense and hard to bear, but there's no privation.

Crops in the north suffered with cold for a long time when first snow, and some were sown under unfavorable conditions, but have improved considerably during the past three weeks. Grain is a good color, and in some places nearly a foot high and has all out in head, and first cutting will in all probability commence this week.

One great advantage that this country will never regret is making Temiskaming a restricted area with regard to cattle, and all animals in this section of the north will have to be passed as free from T. B. before being allowed into the district.

It is stated that already more than half the total number of cows in the district have been tested, under the supervised herd plan, and less than one per cent. were re-actors, and needed destroying. The area covered extends from Bushnell, on the south to Bourkes, on the north, a distance of 136 miles. Most of the cows, however, were in the more thickly populated section, between Cobalt and Charlton.

Our north country is being more and more brought to the attention of the outside world these days.

For a great many years, folk not here had a very vague idea; thought it was just a poor, barren wilderness. But Provincial Legislators come here and visit for a day or two, and are royally entertained, and express great surprise. The Governor-General and his family came and expressed great surprise.

And now it is announced that the Lieut.-Governor, Dr. Herbert A. Bruce, Mrs. Bruce and their son, Maxwell, are to be guests on Sunday, July 19th, at Halesbury, for five hours, between trains, after having been through districts and towns farther north. But this is not all.

The Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission sent out a message about the recent wonderful find made in Bryces Township lately, where it is stated publicly that cores revealed gold ore valued at $170,000 per ton. The message was heard in London, England. The Daily Express, the Beaverbrook newspaper in the Empire's chief city, immediately got in touch with Temiskaming's County Town and Sheriff W. C. Thuermer carried on a twenty-one minute conversation by telephone across the ocean. It being perfectly heard, giving detailed description of the location, how it is to be reached by T.N.O. Railway to Englishard and motor to within three-quarters of a mile, and in fact answered the questions desired. The English editor promised to forward a copy of the paper containing the story as published by them.

This is not uncommon for this country. A great many new finds are being made in territory that has been prospected years ago, when it was covered with bush. At that time it was for silver, cobalt etc. Now it is for gold and the geological composition is entirely different. The finds are being made on old sites that have since been burned over and discoveries are easily visible.

The Ontario prospectors soon got on the war path when they heard the news, and the first two or three trains north never carried heavier loads in the history of the T.N.O. Railway. Train No. 47 carried 10 coaches, with one of their new modern engines, and never made a grunt. One train required two engines. So Englishard was sure on the map for a day or two.

One of the north's new mines being developed, the Munquog Mining Co., advertises $75,000 per ton value $1.30 has a very 60c, and the first day the books opened the whole town was far over-subscribed. So you see how good things are grabbed up.

Au revoir.

R. W. JOHNSON.

Disastrous Farm Fire on Friday

Buildings of Peter Hiltz Complete Loss—Fire Threatened to Sweep the Section

A fire that started from a spark from the chimney in the summer kitchen, wiped out the buildings and their contents on the farm of Peter Hiltz, about three miles north of Acton, and threatened for some time to sweep through the entire section, taking everything in its path.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz were in Acton during the morning and did not know of the fire until on their way home. Theodore Moore, who is employed by Mr. Hiltz, had lit the kitchen stove and prepared his own dinner. When resting outside he noticed the roof of the building on fire and scented a pall of water, which he threw on the blaze. A bit of burning shingle, however, was carried by the wind to a stack of hay, and before he could do anything to prevent the blaze spreading the stack was on fire and the barn and all the buildings were beyond saving.

A wind carried the blaze across a field of hay and to the bush of Mr. Arthur Swackhamer, on the adjoining farm.

With the heat and long continued drought, that this section has experienced the fence rails and crops are like tinder. Neighbors soon gathered, and men from town, and with the efforts of all, the spread of the fire was stopped before it reached the bush.

The loss to Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz is a serious one. The buildings are a complete loss. The house was a frame one and the bank barn was 36x60, with a stable adjoining, 24x36 feet. A little of the furniture from the house was saved, and all the stock was fortunately out of the buildings. Implements lost in the fire included a good binder, seed drill, disc, two plows, roller and all the small farm implements and harness and fittings.

In the seven-acre field of hay, through which the fire swept, Mr. Hiltz had just one load of hay left. The grain and hay in the buildings were, of course, lost with the structure. The loss is partially covered by insurance. The farm is situated on the third line, just above the B. & O. crossing in Erin Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz are at present using the house on an adjoining farm, kindly made available by Mr. E. Harrop, of Acton.
