Acton Boy Scouts are camping near Terra Cotta for ten days. Showers have been with us again, not copious, but appreciated.

It's holiday time and hence only four pages in this week's Free Press.

Auto accidents have been all too plentiful the past week. If all would but "Try Courtesy."

May we remind you to glance at your Free Press label. We'll be glad to make it read right—with your help.

Officers are now making final preparations in readiness for Acton Fall Fair, on September 22nd and 23rd.

The fresh top on the highway, from the seventh line to Georgetown, failed to smooth out this stretch of roadway.

Mrs. Susan Near, of Toronto, widow of the late W. W. Near, was injured in a motor accident, near Belleville, on Tuesday.

The freight shed at the old radial station was removed to the corner at Main and Mill Streets, to be converted into a garage.

Granite chips from the yard at the Ajax Engineering Co. plant are being used to fill the ditch and the side of the highway on Main Street.

The Canadian National Exhibition, that unflinching barometer of business, reports that space reservations by manufacturers and others have reached the 1929 peak in most of the buildings.

UNDER THE PILLOW. Johnnie, on his ninth birthday, had had a party. It was all over, and he was now gazing wistfully at the remains of the cake.

On going up to Johnnie's room some time later his mother was amazed to see Johnnie sleeping peacefully with the pillow over his stomach.

And then it rained—after all these weeks of dry, scorching weather, it so lately rained! Well, of course we all knew it would—eventually!

One day this week I went to school. It was a most quiet day. I always find great pleasure in wandering through the woods, and looking at things here and there, not noticeable at first.

On the way home we left the highway and came along the back road, and I was glad to find there was still one little corner of our Province where one could still see color, brightness and beauty.

Remainder schedule games make no difference in the standing, so it will be Acton and Georgetown to play home and home games for the right to meet Milton for the championship.

On Thursday, August 6th, an all-star team from the Halton County League will meet the Guelph Maple Leaf Senior Team in an exhibition benefit game in Georgetown.

Georgetown brought the strongest team they could get, on Wednesday night, and dished up a mighty smart ball game.

Beaumont fooled everybody, including himself, when he knocked the ball over right field fence, especially when he bats right-handed.

Bill Waterhouse made three grandstand catches in centre field. Any one of the three might have gone as home runs.

In the twenty-two games Acton has played this year, they have won 16 and lost 6, which, after all, is a pretty fair season for any ball team.

From the Issue of The Free Press of Thursday, August 3rd, 1936. Sunday was the hottest day this summer. The mercury registered 92 degrees in the shade.
