Important Business Deal Completed

Warehouse of Acton Machine Co Sold to Mr. J. Donnell, of Toronto

A business transaction that means considerable to Acton and Actonians was closed on Monday. Reeve C. H. Harrison has disposed of the warehouse here of the Acton Machine Co., to Mr. J. Donnell, of Toronto. Mr. Harrison in the transaction secures a splendid modern residence on High Park Boulevard, in Toronto, whence he and Mrs. Harrison and the family have removed this week.

The business of the Acton Machine Co. will be conducted in Acton until the end of the present year and it will then be removed to Toronto and operated from the city. In the meantime Mr. Harrison will be in Acton at the warehouse here several days a week and it is earnestly hoped will find the time to continue his municipal duties as Reeve until the end of the term.

The Acton Machine Company was founded by Mr. Harrison, who first started merchandising auto parts made by Mr. P. S. Blow in his machine shop on Main Street, now occupied as a garage by Mr. Norman McEachern, about fifteen years ago. Under his guidance the business grew rapidly and when the factory building on Maple Avenue was available, the plant was moved to that building, now owned by Mr. Blow. Growth continued and it was found necessary to build another warehouse of practically the same size. Mr. Blow continued in the first plant, and Mr. Harrison erected a modern warehouse to service his growing trade connection. Now, to keep pace with the times, it is found necessary to move the warehouse to Toronto. Mr. Harrison enjoys a coast to coast trade for the many auto parts of which he is the Canadian distributor.

In his busy life Mr. Harrison has taken time to devote to citizenship duties. As Councillor, School Trustee, Reeve, churchman, fair and Y.M.C.A. Director, lodge man, in fact every part of community activity he has shown a keen and practical interest. And Mrs. Harrison has ably seconded his effort and served on the Welfare Board, leader of the Girl Guides and other activities. They and their daughters, Beth and Margaret, will leave places that are hard to fill. This business transaction means a good deal to Acton.

Just what use Mr. Donnell is to make of the factory building has not been designated. He has been active in the blouse and shirt industry and will possibly open a factory in Acton. Mr. Harrison has not sold his residence in Acton.

MONTHLY MEETING OF U. F. W. O.

The monthly meeting of the Farm Women's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Brownlow, with a good attendance. The roll call was answered with a Canadian industry of Halton County.

Mrs. H. McCutcheon gave a report of the committee who had charge of the towel shower, which the Club kindly gave to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hillz in their recent misfortune. Mrs. Brownlow gave a demonstration on quilts. A solo was given by Mrs. Bishop. The contest on "Parts of the Human Body" was won by Group 3, Mesdames Robertson, H. McEneaney, Davidson and Miss Jessie McGregor. Community singing followed.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the hostess, who also served a dainty luncheon, with the assistance of Mrs. George Somerville, and a social time was spent.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman quietly observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home on Main Street. It was on September 26th, 1886, at Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, that Mr. and Mrs. Chapman were joined in holy wedlock. Thirty-eight years ago they came to reside in Acton, where they have been esteemed residents during those years. Mr. Chapman was, until a short time ago, an employee of the Beardmore Co., but is now enjoying a leisure from his faithful service for so long with this local concern.

Of the family of five children, two remain, Miss Madge Chapman, at home; and Mr. John Chapman, who resides on Knox Avenue. Two grandchildren, Kathleen and Jack, were present with the family at the quiet observance of the anniversary on Sunday, when a three-tiered wedding cake, with golden decorations, formed the centre of the table decorations.

Many friends join in wishing for Mr. and Mrs. Chapman many more happy years residing here in Acton, where they have spent the most of their married life.

MARRIED AT CLEVELAND

A September wedding of great interest took place at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, on Roma Boulevard, in Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday, September 19th, at 4:00 p.m. Rev. John S. Gillespie performed the ceremony.

The bride was the former Miss Margaret Beatrice Bauer, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer, 10708 Union Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, formerly of Acton, Ontario, who was married to Mr. Edward John Tulhacek, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tulhacek, of Cleveland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely dressed in peach lace, with a head dress of white roses and other accessories. She carried a bouquet of Tallman roses, larkspur and bridal wreath. She was attended by Mrs. Elsie Layer, who was dressed in pale blue with pink accessories and carried pink roses and bridal wreath. Mr. George Layer, friend of the groom, was best man.

The house decorations were in pink and white, and the table, with a linen cloth and tall pink and white tapers, was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. The reception, attended by forty guests, was at the home of the bride's parents. The groom, Mr. Edward Tulhacek, is an employee of the Cleveland Fire Department, Station 37. Following the reception, amid showers of rice and best wishes of a host of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Tulhacek left on a honeymoon trip east by motor. The couple will reside in Cleveland upon their return.

1936 Acton Fair Set New High Records in Every Way

Record Entry of Exhibits in Most Classes — Arena Had Biggest Crowd on Record at Any Event Held There — Every Department Showed an Increase — The Best of Weather Favored Staging of Show — Parade of Prize-Winning Stock Was a Big Feature — Dr. G. A. McQuibban's Jumping Horses Gave Splendid Exhibit at Both Days.

Y.M.C.A. Acts Were Feature of the Arena Performance

Every department of the 1936 Acton Fair concluded last night showed increases. The Fair was billed as bigger and better, and it lived up to all advance notices and beyond. The biggest crowd ever attending any event in Acton Arena jammed the building on Tuesday night, and the figures bear out the estimate of 3,000 people attending this first evening.

Every class of exhibits was a whole on the better side. The Ladies' Work had a good entry. Grain, roots and fruit were exceptionally good considering the dry season, and the Children's Work had a record entry, with one class with twenty-three entries. The Baking had not as large an entry, nor the Butter class, which have been gradually decreasing in entry.

In the field the horses and cattle had a good entry in every class. The sheep and swine pens were filled and the poultry was a good exhibit. There were more concessionaires on the midway and gate receipts showed a considerable increase. Without a doubt the ideal weather played a big part in the success attained but President G. W. Murray and Secretary P. L. Wright and every one of the Directors who co-operate so splendidly with these heads, can mark 1936 as another big success in the line of twenty-three successful events. Every event went off without a hitch and no serious accident marred the big Fair. Even the dance on the final evening had an increased attendance. It was truly bigger and better.

So much for the general summary, but perhaps the story should be written as it occurred. Acton Fair's first night show of Hall exhibits and arena performance has come to mean a big part of the program. Spectators come right after tea and the arena is packed all evening. Tuesday, standing room was even at a premium. The winners in the hall exhibits are given in this issue of The Free Press.

Acton Citizens' Band provided a splendid musical program. Mr. John Bennett and his dog gave an exhibition of how he could catch a ball. In the vaudeville, George Grant, slack wire artist and juggler; Carr Bros., musical acrobats, in their acts, pleased the crowd. Miss O'Donnell, acrobat and contortionist, gave an act that pleased everyone and drew rounds of applause.

In the race for those over sixteen, W. Collier was first and J. Kemphead, second. Boys' race, under 16 years, went to J. Kemphead, and P. Cleave. The Maple Leaf foot race was won by W. Collier, J. Kemphead and J. Hooper. The bicycle race went to Dirk Van Gozen, with Elmer Lasby second.

Characterized by many of the spectators as the headline item on the bill were the two acts put on by Acton Y.M.C.A. When it is considered that these boys have had only a few months training, their work was even more praiseworthy. They were under the direction of Mr. George Emery, Secretary of Acton Y.M.C.A. Their first performance was a tumbling act and was well done and delighted the crowd. A slip by one of the boys gave him a badly wrenched knee but it is not thought any bones were broken and that he will soon recover. He gamely went right through with his act, although the injury gave him intense pain. Their second presentation was a series of pyramids that drew rounds of applause from the audience. It was a local presentation that amazed many and delighted all. Two clowns from the Acton Y. Gordon Cook and Howard Norton, were equally good as part of the Y. program given. Mr. Gordon Butler, with four Guelph boys, Jack Burnett, John Hodgkins, Art Pellow and Red Arthur greatly assisted the Acton boys in the tumbling act.

The events with the horses always are popular. Acton was favored in having the fine jumping horses of Dr. McQuibban, of Alton, and Mr. Stewart Holting, Toronto, here this year. When Dr. McQuibban's Kilbreen cleared the hurdle at 5 feet 10 inches, he drew the admiration of every lover of horses and there seemed to be many of them in the crowd. Putney, owned by S. Holding, was second; and Junior, another of Dr. McQuibban's horses, was third.

The musical chairs contest had an entry of eight, scrambling off horses and after chairs, until J. Devereaux was acclaimed the winner. The potato race was the concluding feature, with eight entries fighting with pointed sticks and potatoes, and plenty of horseflesh colliding and sweating in the effort. J. B. Devereaux was winner in this event also; May Thompson second, and J. Devereaux, on the pony, in third place.

The failure of the loud speaker to arrive for the event was the only disappointing feature of this night, and made a marked difference in the enjoyment of it by the audience and the conduct of the affair.

Wednesday was another delightful fall day and from early morning the exhibits started to roll in and the fair grounds was a hive of activity. The exhibit in the grounds, when the afternoon started, was a splendid one. Acton Citizens' Band headed the parade of decorated float carriages, float and school children and the teachers. Winners for the doll carriage were Betty Butler, Phyllis Robertson and Jean Wilder. They made a pretty showing indeed. Pallant's shoe store had the prize winning float and was a unique and attractive entry.

The couple married the greatest number of years attending the Fair were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Mack, of Rockwood. Mr. Mack is eighty-two and Mrs. Mack eighty years of age. They have been married fifty-seven years, and it is a coincidence that September 23rd was their wedding anniversary day.

The one attending Acton Fair from the greatest distance was Miss Laura Linham, of Westbury, Wiltshire, England. Field Superintendent R. J. Kerr had a program before the grandstand that left not a dull moment. He was master of ceremonies and in his own inimitable way kept everything running smoothly. On behalf of Acton Reeve C. H. Harrison extended a cordial welcome to all and told of the pride of citizens in Acton Fair.

President G. W. Murray extended a cordial welcome to every visitor to the Fair on behalf of his fellow Directors. He introduced Dr. G. I. Christie, President of the Ontario Agricultural College, who officially opened the Fair. He congratulated the exhibitors and Directors on the splendid exhibit of ladies' vegetables, horses and cattle and the operation of the Fair. He had made this visit to show his appreciation of the Board of the Fair in this work of bettering farm and community life. Mr. Elliott Moses also congratulated the Fair and the presentation being given.

In the trotting races there were close finishes. The Free-for-All was won by June Peters, owned by A. Schaffer, Waterloo; second place went to Logan McKillop, owned by L. E. McKeown, Weston; and third to Lady Peters, owned by P. E. Hopkins, Cooksville.

In the 238 Class, Peter J. by P. Hewar, Guelph, was first; Kate Smith, by Samuel Smith, Hamilton, was second; Goldie Gratton, by W. E. McCready, Milton, third; and Jean Harvester, by A. J. Ingle, Waterloo, fourth.

J. McPhail, Guelph, was first in the Old-time Fiddlers' Contest; with C. Dyer, Hillsburg, second; and D. Tarzwell, Arkell, third. Seven entries in the step dancing event made it a real contest. George Cutting, Orton, won first place; C. Dolson, Georgetown, second; and H. Hall, Hillsburg, third.

The Scotch Reel, presented by Mrs. Beath and Irene Beath and J. Beath and Mr. McDonald was first prize, amid delighted the audience. For the Highland Fling, Irene Beath was first, and Margaret McDonald second. The contest for farmers' dogs catching a ball drew an entry of four, and a first class dog fight. It was a new feature and proved quite unique and interesting. Mr. John Bennett's dog won first prize; Dorothy Cleave's dog was second, and Chas. Gregory's dog third.

PRESIDENT G. W. MURRAY
Who Led Acton Fair to Another Success for 1936

Junior won first and third places and Mr. Fred Gosland's entry was second. The potato race had another good entry and plenty of action during its seven minutes. J. Devereaux won first; W. Thompson, second; and G. Thomson, third.

The parade of prize winning stock has been improving each year and when these passed in review before the grandstand, headed by Acton Citizens' Band, some conception of the entry and the quality of the exhibit shown could be secured. It was a splendid display.

During the afternoon, Mr. Charles W. Landsborough, of Acton, winner of the gold medal for cornet solo at the C. N. E. this year and previously, played the solo that won for him this high honor. The fair was concluded about six o'clock, when those who had not had an opportunity of a bit of frivolity on the midway, could eat, drink and play in the concessions that lined this section in the centre of the Park. The prize winners in the field classes will be given in next week's issue of The Free Press, along with some of the pictures of events of the Fair.

Most everyone was a bit tired, but Acton Fair for 1936 had again proven a success and although steps homeward were possibly not as brisk as those when bound for the Fair, all were unanimous in their appreciation of a successful fair.

Splendid Concert by Orchestra

Jim Hunter Conducted a Snappy Program — Hall Was Crowded

Acton Concert Orchestra provided the first concert of the season in the Town Hall on Saturday evening last and it was one of the best concerts ever held in Acton. Jim Hunter, of the Toronto Telegram, was master of ceremonies, and to him much credit is due for the success of the event.

The program opened with selections by the Acton Concert Orchestra. Jim Hunter was officially welcomed by Reeve Harrison and was given a very enthusiastic welcome by the audience. A drill and song by the members of the orchestra, "We Joined the Navy to See the World," was heartily enjoyed. Mr. Irving Spirez, of Guelph, rendered several xylophone selections, and violin duets by Norman Bradaid and Wellington Hall were also well received. John Emerson, of Georgetown, the cowboy singer, rendered "Hand Me Down My Walking Cane," and "Home on the Range." "Silver-haired Daddy of Mine," "Cowboy Jack," and "Boots and Saddle." Other numbers were xylophone duets by Mr. Spirez and Miss Spirez; cornet solos by Ted Denyer, accompanied by Mrs. Denyer. The Orchestra appeared on the program with several "old-time" numbers, featuring Messrs. J. Black and W. Brown on their fiddles, which were greatly enjoyed. Misses Jessie Young and Dorothy Frank gave piano duets; and saxophone trios by Bob Parkinson, Bing Ramsden and Ray Agnew. A community sing-song proved quite popular, led by Jim Hunter. Mr. C. W. Mason is the conductor of the Orchestra.

SAYING FAREWELL

On Monday evening Mrs. G. A. Dills entertained a number of friends of Mrs. C. H. Harrison at her home on Frederick Street. The occasion was just an opportunity for many of the ladies to spend a social hour with Mrs. Harrison and Misses Beth and Margaret before their removal to Toronto this week. About fifty ladies called during the evening.

FAIR NIGHT ACCIDENT

An accident occurred on the highway about three miles east of Acton last night, in which all the participants were returning home from Acton Fair. W. O. Moffat had his prize winning horse hitched to his show buggy and Stanley Morrison was leading a string of three horses at the rear of the vehicle. Charles Fletcher, 122 Northcote Avenue, Toronto, a concessionaire at the Fair, was returning to Toronto and failed to notice the vehicle or horses on the highway, and crashed into them.

The horses were thrown to the ditch with the occupants of the buggy, but fortunately neither Messrs. Moffat or Morrison or any of the animals were injured seriously. The buggy was almost a total wreck. The car was damaged in the front, but not to any great extent. Another mishap of the same type was just averted on the highway west of Acton, also when the driver of the car was able to stop before he hit the horses and vehicle.

MISSED THE ROAD

On Saturday night Wallace Topping, of 165 Bastedo Avenue, Toronto, rather damaged his car when he drove it off the edge of the cement and crashed along the guard rail at the edge of the creek on Main Street. The driver blames the glaring lights of a vehicle he was meeting for him falling to keep on the roadway. Chief McPherson investigated the accident and a charge of reckless driving has been preferred against the driver.

FAMILY GATHERING

A happy family gathering was held on Wednesday, when all the family of Mrs. R. H. Wansbrough gathered with their mother to celebrate her birthday. They were: Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Wansbrough, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day and Mrs. Marlon Day, Rockwood; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McKay, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Smith and children; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wansbrough and Robbie, of Toronto.

Brief Items

Acton Fair

The miniature railway had a lure for the kiddies that kept it busy tooting over the road all afternoon.

Dr. McQuibban's splendid high jumping horses have for two years been a feature at Acton Fair that has been appreciated.

Now if Earl Rowe's trotting horse had only been here, there would have been a chance for some comparisons.

The loud speaker equipment was an emergency arrangement on Wednesday, after a mixing of dates on the part of the usual firm, who always supplied good service to Acton Fair.

In the Hall splendid commercial exhibits were displayed by Barr's Grocery with Peek-Preen goods; Johnstone & Rumley, furniture exhibits; Miss K. Hobbell, featuring Langley's exhibit; and J. H. MacKenzie & Son, with built-in household fittings.

New cars, trailers, equipment for households and other items made a good exhibit on the grounds on Wednesday.

The school children's exhibit was the largest ever. It speaks well for the future of the Fair.

Pallant's Shoe Store floor was crowded by many. It set an example of a fine opportunity for other merchants to follow in capitalizing on advertising their products before the Fair Day crowds and improving the parades. It is to be hoped it will be enlarged upon next year by more merchants participating. Incidentally it won a prize as well.

Elwood Hughes, of the C.N.E., says no fair can operate unless it has the cooperation of the community it serves. Acton Fair seems to have what it takes and Mr. Hughes knew whereof he speaks.

When telling of the success of the Fair, a visitor remarked: "R. J. Kerr will be pleased." Yes, and he isn't the only one smiling. Every Officer and Director has that feeling of having conducted a successful event.

Acton Citizens' Band plays an important part in the success of Acton's two day Fair. They, as usual, did a good job this year.
