Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interest

Crewsons Corners

Mrs. J. Burlingham spent last Thursday visiting friends at Rockwood. Mr. Chas. Tyler, of Agincourt; Mrs. Dean and Franklin and Mrs. Pitman, of Milliken, were Sunday visitors at the Corners. Services at the church on Sunday as usual. Mr. and Mrs. William Stevenson and daughter, from Detroit, were recent visitors at the home of Miss Emma Cripps.

Hillsburg

Mrs. D. A. Robertson is spending a few days in Hillsburg. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cheyne, of Centre Inn; Mrs. J. Churcher and Mrs. H. Church, of Guelph, spent Thursday last week as guests of Mrs. Wm. Cheyne. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Booth, Mae and Frances, of Caledon; Mr. Wm. Cheyne motored to Guelph on Sunday to spend the day with friends. Silo filling is the order of the day, and a good sample of corn is reported, considering the drought. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lasby, of Ermosa, spent Sunday with Messrs. A. and W. Bessey. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bessey have moved into their new house, recently erected, and are comfortably settled.

Georgetown

Grace Hauwerd Burke, fifth prize Holstein cow, owned by Thomas L. Leslie, of Altonville Farms, Georgetown, gave birth to twin calves at Toronto Exhibition last Sunday. Georgetown Branch 120, Canadian Legion, tendered a reception to the members of Georgetown's prize-winning band, the Lorne Rifles (Scottish), on Thursday evening last at their Club Rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walters, of Bremen, Indiana, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. Leslie, and other friends in this vicinity. Hon. and Mrs. Earl Rowe, Hon. and Mrs. Leopold Macaulay, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Iceland and Miss Drew were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Plock during their stay in town last Saturday.—Herald.

Eden Mills

The local Women's Institute visited the Dublin Institute last week and provided an excellent program consisting of instrumental numbers by Mrs. J. Roberts and Mrs. W. McPhail, solo by Miss Helen McPhail, trio by Misses Inness and Florence Lewis and Helen Scott, and a splendid paper was given by Mrs. J. Gilbertson. A social hour was spent and all departed to their homes reporting a most time. The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church held their monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. W. and J. Gilbertson. The Scripture was read by Mrs. W. McPhail and Mrs. R. Wilson and a solo by Mrs. J. D. Lowrie, all of which were very much enjoyed. Final arrangements were made for the fowl supper, also for the annual bazaar. A social hour was spent and lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. R. Wilson and Mrs. H. Gilbertson. Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsey and Mr. Clarence visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey, Garafra on Sunday. Dr. Fred Croft of Kitchener, was a Sunday visitor in the home of his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ebley and family of Brookville visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Scott on Sunday. Miss M. Smith has returned to her home after spending some time with her sister in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. J. Barden and Mrs. H. Barden visited a few days at Lindsay and attended a wedding at Hillsburg. Miss Helen Scott is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Duffield, Ospringle. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Oswin, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spinks and family, Mrs. Spinks, and Miss Anne Little, all of Caledon East, were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson. Mr. S. Barnes and Miss Margaret Minto, of Acton, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mino. Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson, of Guelph, visited in the Gilbertson home for a few days. Mrs. Emily Wilson has moved to her farm near Rockwood. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fields and family of Toronto, were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mino. Mr. H. McIntosh has left for an extended visit in England. The local churches were both closed on Sunday owing to the anniversary services held at Acton, where the Rev. M. C. Gandler, a former pastor, was the guest speaker and at Rockwood, where the Rev. F. Lawson, of Campbellville officiated. Several from this district attended services at both places.

Ospringle

A number from here attended the School Fair at Brisbane on Tuesday. The local school received first place for the school chorus, and numerous other prizes were also received by the scholars. Mr. and Mrs. B. McKinnon and Blanche recently attended a birthday party for Mrs. McKinnon's mother, Mrs. McLaughlin, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Turner, Colbeck. Miss Margaret Cooke spent a day this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Matheson, at Coningsby. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Husson and babe, of Guelph, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart over the week-end. Visitors last week with Mr. and Mrs. F. Gordon were Mr. A. M. Kirkwood, Aurora, and Miss Jean Kirkwood, of Guelph. A community corn and wicker road was held on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Lecker, when about one hundred and twenty-five gathered. An impromptu program was enjoyed, also a sing song around the bonfire. An abundance of corn, wickers, rolls and coffee soon disappeared. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cook and Mrs. Wesley motored to Barrie on Thursday to visit with the latter's brother, who had been quite ill. When they arrived he had passed away, so they remained for the funeral, which was held on Saturday afternoon. The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the church on Wednesday afternoon, in the form of a ten-cent tea. A short program was enjoyed, recitation, Miss Edna Cook; solo, with auto-harp accompaniment, Miss L. Lecker; solo, Miss Dorothy McKenzie; reading, Miss Nellie Webb; duett, Mrs. B. McKinnon and Blanche; paper, on "Hymns and Their Authors," Mrs. D. C. Robertson; contest, conducted by Mrs. B. McKinnon, and won by Mrs. E. N. Sinter and Mrs. D. Stewart. All were invited to the basement, where a dainty tea was served by the committee in charge. Mrs. S. Grundy is visiting in Detroit, with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. Grundy. Dr. Reynolds, of Hillsburg, paid his annual inspection trip to the school on Tuesday, in connection with his office as Health Officer.

Limehouse

Miss Ivens, of Toronto, spent the week-end at her home here. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Millie and family, of Brampton, were at his parents' home on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Trotter, of Stratford, with their children, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Norton. Mrs. Robert Lane, Mr. Robt. Lane, Jr., and Mrs. Harvey Norton, with Ross, visited Mr. Arthur Lane in the Toronto Hospital on Sunday. Mr. Norman Brown and Miss Maisto Jackson, of Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. Sheelborne. Miss Jackson is leaving for a visit to England on Thursday. Mr. Leonard Brown and Miss Evelyn McKay, of Toronto, are spending their summer vacation with Mr. and Mrs. P. Sheelborne. The children are busy at both churches preparing for Rally Day next Sunday, when good congregations are looked for at both places.

Milton

Mrs. Sarah Lewington, one of Milton's oldest citizens, celebrated her 85th birthday yesterday at the home of her son, Charles. Mrs. Charles Bowring left on Tuesday evening for a trip to Vancouver, B.C., where she will visit her sister for a few weeks. Howard Allison, butcher, here, has bought the residence owned by the late Mrs. John Agnew, adjoining the south-west side of the town. Provincial Constable and Mrs. George Cookman returned on Sunday from their trip to France, England and Scotland. While in France they attended the unveiling of the Vimy Ridge Memorial by His Majesty King Edward VIII. The unveiling was held at the Vimy Ridge, having been accepted by the water tower, and owned by M. E. Nixon, the Walker Store will, on October 1st, move its stock into the store occupied by R. M. Parker dealer in boots and shoes, who, on account of illness, is retiring from business. John R. Mills, one of the oldest members of Milton L.O.L. No. 2358, has been made an honorary member of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Ontario West. Mr. Mills is now in his 74th year and has attended 53 Orange celebrations in the Province since he joined the L.O.L. Negotiating to look his son's car, which he had parked in front of the dance hall at Girdle, James Service, farmer, near Milton, found it missing Thursday night, at the conclusion of a shower and dance for a bride-to-be, Provincial Constable A. J. Oliver, of Milton, investigated. The car was found next day on the seventh line, Trafalgar Township.—Champion.

Burlington

Six cement bench seats have been placed in Lakeside Park. They have made one more valuable addition to this beauty spot. There has been a need for more seating accommodation for a considerable period of time. Nervy thieves paid a visit to town on Saturday night and helped themselves to a brand new Ford car from the garage of Macklin & MacLinn's garage, Water Street, on the Toronto-Hamilton Highway. J. N. Ogg, one of Burlington's oldest and esteemed residents, passed away at his home on Pine Street on Thursday afternoon, after a brief illness. Enjoying good health and keenly interested in the affairs of the day, ex-Magistrate Jonathan H. Shields, of Oakville, one of Halton's oldest and most esteemed citizens, celebrated his 88th birthday last Thursday, September 12th. Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Christie, of Bramford, called on friends here last Thursday. Rev. Mr. Christie is now editor of the Bramford Express. Miss Aubra Cleaver left to-day (Wednesday) for Regina, Sask., where she has accepted a position as Superintendent of the City Hospital there. On Monday evening last, a truck from Vinland loaded with fruit, ran into the back of a car, driven by Allan Mitchell, Sr., as he turned off Brent Street onto Caroline Street. Apparently the truck driver was about to pass Mr. Mitchell when he discovered he was turning, and being unable to stop in time, crashed into the Mitchell car, damaging the front and rear fenders. Plumbers are busy in the town these days. Installation of water metres in homes in the town is given as the reason. Many users find themselves using more than the allowance, but when the plumber is called and all-leaks checked a difference in the consumption of water is noted. One of the most glaring cases of a leak to come to the attention of the Waterworks Superintendent was the case of a man who had used his three months' allowance in two weeks. Upon investigation the Superintendent checked a leak of over 25 gallons a minute.—Gazette.

OUT OF PROPORTION

First Miler—"This butter is so strong it could walk over and say 'hello' to the coffee."
Second Miler—"Yes, and the coffee is too weak to answer."

A PEDESTRIAN?

Stranger—"Did you see a pedestrian pass here?"
Native—"No; I've been workin' here all afternoon, and not a thing has come by 'ceptin' one solitary man, an' he was trampin' on foot."

Rockwood

The second meeting of the United Church Young People's Society was held on Sunday night, with Mrs. Ben Hosking, Missionary Convener, in charge. Good discussions were held on the topics, "The Advantages of Evangelism in Quebec"; "Do Foreign Missions Pay?"; and other missionary topics. The discussion period was led by Elsie Gordon. The Society is planning to operate a Book Club as soon as possible. The Fall Rally is to be held on October 18th, with Wm. S. McVittie, President of Hamilton Conference Young People's Union, as special speaker. Next Sunday the Society will have charge of the regular church service at night. The annual Rural School Fair of the Township was held last Thursday in Exhibition Park, and largely attended. Entries of exhibits in all classes were much in evidence, and competition was also keen. Exhibits of live stock showed that the young folks were well up in that line. Flowers and vegetables as well as bakings, were well represented. One interesting feature was the boys' and girls' speeches, which were listened to with close attention. The finishing touches of the Fair was the line-up of all the schools and parading to their respective places, and put through their exercises. Miss Annie Joffire had charge of the singing by the scholars, and the school yells, conducted by teachers and pupils, were received with approval by the large number present. The Pastoral Services were held at St. John's Church Friday evening, when Rev. R. M. Field, of Guelph, was the special speaker for the occasion. The church was decorated with products of the garden and fields, which bore evidence that all All-We Providence seeks to provide for the sustenance of mankind. Services on Sunday afternoon were well attended when the pastor, Rev. E. Britton, conducted the service. Members of St. Alban's Church choir, Acton, were present and assisted in the services on both occasions. Anniversary services at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday were well attended morning and evening. The minister for the day was Rev. Frank Lawson, of Campbellville and Nasagaweya, who delivered earnest discourses, and who held the attention of the audience throughout. Selections by the choir were much appreciated. The evening service of the United Church was withdrawn, and Rev. W. J. Taylor led in prayer. Mr. S. Johnston was present in the evening, and contributed a solo. The platform was well decorated with flowers and foliage. On Monday evening, the anniversary supper was held in the basement, where the ladies of the congregation served good things to satisfy the inner man. Following the supper a varied program was enjoyed by the large number present. Mr. S. Johnston was chairman. Music was supplied by an orchestra from Knox Church, Acton. Solos were contributed by Dr. Walker; readings by Mrs. Kirkness, of Acton; selection by Acton male quartette; selections from quartette of the orchestra, which were much appreciated; piano solos by Miss Anna Foreman; solos by Miss Orr, of Acton; and Mr. Goodwin; addresses by Rev. W. J. Bennis, of Acton; and Rev. W. J. Taylor; solo by Mr. Johnston. Recent and week-end visitors: Mrs. (Dr.) Fred J. Hosking, Hillsdale; Mr. Rutherford Hewat, Mimico; Messrs. Clarence and James Lynch, of Toronto. Mr. Jas. Oakes, Toronto. Mr. Whit. Royce and son, Clarence, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Allan and daughter, Marie, Toronto. Miss Evelyn Peafen, Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. B. Fields, Toronto. Miss Ella Hamilton, Hamilton. Mr. R. H. Trout, Estavan, Sask. Dr. Fred Croft, Kitchener. Miss Kathleen Oakes, Galt. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craig and son, Wallace, Toronto. Mrs. Jas. Roberts, Eden Mills, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Max Milne and family. Rev. W. J. Taylor, Rev. John Little and Mr. Frank Day were representatives from the United Church at the Guelph Presbytery meeting, held in Kitchener last week. Rev. W. J. Taylor was elected Moderator of the Guelph Presbytery. Visitors at the Personage by Mrs. Taylor, her mother and aunt; Mrs. Taylor, of Blythe. The September meeting of the Victorian Mission Band of the Presbyterian Church was held last Wednesday afternoon in the basement of the church. Miss Edna McNabb, President of the Band, opened the meeting with a hymn and prayer. Miss Anna McNabb read the Scripture lesson and Miss Frances McNabb gave the topic story. At the conclusion of the meeting, the girls spent some time in balm packing and sewing. The telephone poles along the Valley Road are being given a coat of white paint up to a certain height, which will enable them to be seen at night to better advantage. Mr. Fred Hamilton and his assistants have given the centre of the highway a coat of paint through the village, for the benefit of the motorists after night fall.

Oakville

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Porder left on Saturday on the Duchess of Richmond for England. They will make their home in London. Monday evening the Oakville Town Council instructed the garbage collector to apply to the Town Byrman for assistance in the collection of garbage when a holiday came during the week. Lieut. E. W. Finch-Noyes, R.C.N., arrived in Oakville on Thursday last to spend a month's leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Finch-Noyes, Colborne Street. Lieut. Finch-Noyes is stationed at Esquimaux, B.C. Mr. J. E. Hammell, Lakeshore east, left Toronto on Friday evening to accompany Hon. T. A. Cramer, Minister of Mines, and Clarence Jackson, Secretary for Mr. Cramer, on an inspection trip of the Red Lake mining district. Miss Alice Regan, of Chicago, was in town last week, dividing her time among Oakville friends. It will be remembered that Miss Regan won the prize for coming the greatest distance to attend the Old Boys' and Girls' Re-union, having travelled from Alaska. Mrs. Mary Hughes, wife of David Hughes, and co-proprietor of Dave's Place, Lakeshore Highway west, was fined $100 and costs by Magistrate W. E. McInnes, Monday morning, on a charge of being in possession of liquor contrary to an order of the Ontario Liquor Control Board.—Record. Six new Gray Coach buses passed through town on Monday evening, traveling toward Toronto. These buses are built on a new plan, having no hood at the front and with the engine at the rear of the bus. Mr. and Mrs. Armand N. Heintzman, "Oakdene," of town, announce the marriage of their daughter, Nelda Mary, to Mr. Gabriel J. L. Keogh, son of Mr. Elizabeth Keogh, Toronto, and the late Mr. Lucius Keogh, of Ottawa. The marriage will take place the middle of October.—Star.
