The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Jackson, townline. About forty ladies were present to enjoy the afternoon program. The roll call was well responded to, with a "Christmas verse or story." Very interesting Current Events were prepared by Mrs. D. Stewart, and read by Mrs. P. Dryden. An invitation from the Everton branch to enter a program in their "Competition Contest," early in the New Year, was accepted; and a committee to look after same was appointed. Mrs. E. Barber, Mrs. S. Bux, Mrs. L. Rayburn, Mrs. J. S. McCutcheon and Mrs. D. G. Robertson were chosen. A very interesting and well prepared report of the Toronto Convention was given by the delegate, Mrs. S. Bux. Miss Mary Campbell, leader of the Girls' Club gave a report of the Club's activities. An exchange of Christmas gifts from a well-laden tree was enjoyed. An instrumental number by Mrs. L. Rayburn added nice variety to the program. The hostess and her assistants served a dainty lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Churchill

The Women's Association of Churchill held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. C. B. Swackhamer yesterday afternoon, with a good attendance. Following the opening exercises, Mrs. Stephenson gave an interesting address on missionary work. A generous subscription was taken up, with the money to be spent on blankets for the West. It was also decided to make quilts for the missionary sale. Reports were read and adopted, showing a satisfactory balance. Rev. Mr. Stephenson presided for the election of officers. He congratulated the ladies on their splendid work during the year.

Officers were re-elected as follows: President—Mrs. Thomas, Vice-President—Mrs. Frank Freeman, Secretary—Mrs. W. Butler, Treasurer—Mrs. H. Griffin.
