ORCHESTRA HONORS LLOYD EASTERBROOK

Last Sunday afternoon members of Knox Sunday School Orchestra honored one of their members, Lloyd Easterbrook, who is removing to Toronto. A presentation of a writing cabinet was made, and in the following address the regret of members of the Orchestra was expressed and appreciation of his services shown:

Dear Lloyd:
It is with deep regret, Lloyd, that we realize you are leaving us. These last two and a half years that we have played in the Orchestra together, seem to have gone so quickly when we look back on them, and we know that your leaving will be besides a personal loss, a loss to the Orchestra as well.

However, we are glad to know that you are able to take this opportunity of bettering yourself and we want you to know that wherever you are our best wishes will follow you for further success.

This playing together, Sunday after Sunday, has given us a comradeship that will not easily be forgotten. Therefore we would like you to accept this gift, hoping that it will be of service to you, and that it will often remind you of the good times we have had together.

MISS K. SAVAGE HONORED BY FELLOW EMPLOYEES

Last Thursday afternoon Miss Kathleen Savage was completing work at the Storey Glove Co., prior to her marriage this week. The fellow employees of the office staff gathered. Appreciation of her fellowship and service was expressed when the following address was read by Mr. R. R. Arnold and on behalf of the office staff Miss C. Hanna made the presentation of a beautiful silver entire dish.

Miss Kathleen Savage, Acton, Ontario
Dear Killy:
It was indeed with mingled feelings of joy and regret that we learned of your intention of severing your connection with our office staff. We are glad for your sake because we know that you are going forth on the greatest adventure of your life but, at the same time, we are all going to miss you from our midst.

In the years that we have worked together, we have been through many ups and downs and many a time your witty word and friendly smile have whisked away the tense moment. As you go out from us to set sail on the wide, wide sea of matrimony, we trust that you will do so better fitted to meet the tempests of the new life for having served with us.

May you and your partner be given long, long years of health, happiness and prosperity together. May your troubles all be little ones that will quickly vanish, leaving you the calm of a contented life.

The things we have failed to say are wrapped up in this token of our esteem for you which we now ask you to accept, coupled with the very best of good wishes of

A CHRISTMASTIDE WEDDING

A pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Savage, when their only daughter, Kathleen Clara (Killy) became the bride of Mr. J. Campbell Currie, of Chatham. The wedding was attended only by the families of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends. Charming gowns in azure blue triple abert fawn frock, with gray shoes and hose, and carrying a bride bouquet of pink carnations, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a garland of pink flowers. Miss Dora Lambert was bridesmaid, and wore a gown of rose moire satin, with white accessories and carried white carnations and had a garland of blue. The groom was attended by Mr. Robert MacArthur. The wedding music was played by Miss Mary Arnold and the ceremony performed by Rev. E. Milton Morrow, pastor of the bride. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the home and in keeping with the season of the year the holiday decorations were throughout the home. For travelling the bride wore a rust wool suit, with brown coat and brown and rust hat and brown accessories. After a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Currie will reside in Chatham where Mr. Currie is a member of the staff of the Chatham Daily News.
