Eden Mills

The Mary E. Anderson group of the Presbyterian Church met on Thursday afternoon in the home of Miss Helen McPhail, with the Honorary President, Mrs. W. Lowrie, in the chair. After the opening hymn and prayer, and the scripture lesson, very satisfactory reports were read and adopted. Readings were given by Misses Blanche Milne and Jean Lowrie, also a splendid paper, "The Man who died for Me," by Mrs. N. McPhail. A duet was given by Mrs. Nell McPhail and Miss Helen McPhail, all of which were very much enjoyed. After a very profitable business discussion, the meeting closed. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the McPhails for the use of their home.

Due to the inclement weather, the social evening, held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Milne, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church, was not so largely attended as expected, but a very enjoyable time was reported.

Congratulations are extended to the pupils of S. S. No. 3, Nassagaweya, on their splendid contribution at the Musical Festival, held in Milton, this being their first year. Great credit is due Mrs. Robertson, the music teacher, also Mr. Brille, the teacher of the school.
