Miss Ariel Smith, of Guelph General Hospital, has returned after spending her vacation here. Mrs. H. L. Merner underwent an operation in St. Catharines General Hospital last Friday and is recovering nicely. Workmen recently planted 7,500 red pine trees on the village property, known to many as the big hill; quite a number of the trees planted on this slight hill spring were killed by the drought last summer. Wm. Alexander & Son, of Alton, road contractors, discovered that part of their stone crushing machinery located at Bowling Green was missing and suspected junk dealers were responsible, and put a constable on the job to watch for developments. In due course, along came a dealer with cutting equipment, and the law closed in on him. Provincial Officer Kirk and Hammer making the theft and the missing parts of the crusher were located in Hamilton. The disposition of the case is not as yet known.—Advocate.

Taylor read the scripture lesson. Rev. Samuel Johnston introduced the speaker for the meeting, Rev. Mr. McLeary, of the Bible Society, who delivered an earnest discourse. Special music was contributed by the choir, with Rev. S. Johnston assisting. Despite wet weather, a good number was present.

On Sunday morning, at the conclusion of the service in the Presbyterian Church, an ordination service was held for the three new Elders, Messrs. Wm. A. Dickson, W. J. Gordon and M. T. Smith, owing to illness of the former Elders, Mr. Robt. Harwood and Mr. J. E. Pearson. Mr. R. Roy, of St. Paul's Church, Guelph, was present.

Mr. J. E. Pearson has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to return home from the Guelph General Hospital. Recent and week-end visitors:

Miss Moore, of Guelph; Mrs. John McMillan, of Brampton; Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. LeVine, of Buffalo.

Miss Evelyn Pearson, Toronto; Miss Ida Hamilton, of Hamilton; Mrs. Black, R. N., of Guelph.

According to a Toronto paper, No. 8 Highway was almost at a standstill with the heavy traffic.

Relief accounts for the month of April in Burlington totalled $229.11. This amount was only $35.66 less than last year and $201.88 less than last month. Mr. John Goodbrand, of Hamilton, has purchased a town lot on Locust Street, and will commence building a home, in the near future. Many enquiries for lots are being received here and indications point to the largest building year in the history of the town.

Mrs. P. G. Russell, teacher of music in the schools here, will have the sympathy of her host of friends in the death of her husband, Fred G. Russell, who died early Monday morning at his Westmoreland Avenue home, Toronto, aged 44 years. Roll call was answered by answering the question, "Why do you belong to the Institute?" Election of officers for the coming year took up the business part of the meeting. The results were as follows: President, Mrs. A. J. Smethurst; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. P. Brown; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. A. W. The roll call was answered by "A Pattern Alteration." The leader, Miss Mary Campbell gave a very interesting and helpful talk on "Good Posture." The Everton leader, Mrs. G. G. Robertson was present and was a great help to the girls. Each girl was required to bring cotton goods and a pattern to the meeting and cut out a dress. The dresses are to be finished at later meetings. The next meeting will be held early this week.

Oakville

John B. Moat has been appointed chairman of the Oakville committee for administering the Dominion Home Improvement Plan inaugurated by the Federal Government.

Making a powerful plea for a greater civilizing influence in modern education, Joseph McCulloch, headmaster of Pickering College, Newmarket, and well-known educationalist, delivered a stirring address at Friday evening's meeting of the Oakville Lions Club held at the Village Inn.

Considerable excitement was provided on Thursday evening by the mad dash for liberty of a Toronto youth in charge of a stolen car. The chase ended up on a small tongue of land near the town dump on the west side of the creek, where the fugitive found himself cornered and was obliged to surrender.

An effort to secure the southern portion of the Central school property at the north-west corner of Colborne and Navy Streets as the site for Oakville's new Post Office proved unsuccessful, when the Oakville board of education refused an offer of $5,000 for the property, holding out for $6,000.

Under a glorious May sky, with trees bursting into leaf and the glad atmosphere of spring all round, Oakville yesterday paid joyous tribute to Britain's newly crowned monarch, King George the Sixth. The coronation celebrations in which hundreds took part, were characterized by an originality and a spirit of patriotic fervor that will make the day one to be long remembered in Oakville's history.—Record-Star.

THE YOUTH WITH A PULL

Some young people so dislike the idea of being dependent on "pull" that they reject it even when it is theirs for the taking. The son of one of the country's rich men felt this so strongly that when he was ready to start work, instead of taking a job in his father's office, as he might have done, he went to a branch establishment in a distant state, under an assumed name. This is carrying self-reliance rather far, most of us think. If your uncle is ready to give you a job because you are his nephew, the sensible thing is to take it, not to apply for a position with the firm of Grundy & Company where you are entirely unknown.

While no reason can be found to reduce the profits of your "pull" in the matter of getting a start, do not rely on it after you are started. Do not think that because you are the nephew of the boss you can come late occasionally, or to get away early in the afternoon if you want to see a ball game. No surer way can be found to become unpopular than to rely on your "pull" for little favors.

LUMBER ALONG

Fresh—"How do you suppose a fellow with two wooden legs can walk?" Soph—"He probably just manages to lumber along."
