

BRIEF MENTIONS.

The best policy—insurance.

Supervisor James McDonald is in attendance at Waukegan, where the County Board is now in session.

The foundation for the new Bethany Church is being built, and the structure will be pushed forward to completion.

Regular meeting of A. O. Fay Lodge A. F. & A. M., next Monday evening, (July 16th.) Work on the M. M. degree.

Mr. J. E. Baker, one of Chicago's prominent real estate owners, is enjoying country life and pleasant surroundings with the Erskine family.

Mr. Alfred Moses, accompanied by "gross-fader," returned home on Tuesday, having been on a two week's visit to prominent points in Indiana.

Advices continue to arrive from Capt. Bennett, Miss Bennett, and Miss Steers, who are at present in London, to the effect that they are greatly enjoying their stay.

That long talked of base ball game to come off between the unmarried and married men, seems to have been indefinitely postponed. Probably it's a case of "one-side's-afraid-and-the-other-dassn't!"

We direct attention to our list of advertisers. They are all gentlemen alive to the interests of the town, and study to meet the daily wants of their patrons. Read the list through and kindly remember them when needing anything in their respective lines.

The Presbyterian Church Society have abundant reason to feel thankful at this time, for the reason that every cent of their heavy indebtedness, something like $18,000, has been paid.

The Baptist Church Society have reduced their debt $2,000, and got it in a shape easily to handle.

The Trinity Episcopal have only $800 to take care of, which speaks well for those in charge. Surely the Lord hath been with his people.

The horse stolen from Mr. George Brown, one night about two weeks ago, is again in its owner's possession. A notice of reward for information that would lead to the recovery of the animal seems to have reached the police officials of Chicago, and through the efforts of detective Morgan, one of their number, the horse was returned. Officer Johnson, of this place, rendered good service as well. Report just reaches us that several more horses have been stolen in the country, in the vicinity of Libertyville. They hang horse thieves in some countries—when they catch them.
