

D. M. ERSKINE, JR.'S INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE JOURNAL.

Vol. 1.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., JUNE, 1884.

No. 12.

Dark complexions are coming in favor. It is said there is now what is known as sunburnt powder introduced for the make up of ladies' faces, both young and old, who would fain keep up with the procession.

Wanted. Every mother's son who has property in Highland Park to sell or rent to bear in mind the fact that we are just in that kind of business.

The Salvation Army, numbering twenty-four men and women, were arrested at Cleveland, O., for disturbing the peace. The leader was fined $15 and costs, and the others $5 each.

It is better to live in a small house of your own than to pay rent for a large one belonging to some other man. If you don't believe it try it.

Mrs. Hartzell Kaufman, a young lady of Wellsburg, Pa., has become crazy after hearing a powerful sermon on eternal damnation, which she feared might be her fate.

Two very fine lots south front on Laurel Ave may be had at a bargain. We advised the owner to "hold on" but he said "No, let them go," and we shall have to do it.

The courts of Massachusetts have decided that when a man is naturalized his wife is also naturalized.

Its Cheaper to bring your friends from the old country than many of you are apt to think. Call at this office for particulars.

Henry Ward Beecher and 1,500 others ask for the appointment of women on the Brooklyn Board of Education.

Money to Loan on Real Estate in sums to suit at current rates.

Alexander Mitchell, the Scotch banker, of Milwaukee, who is believed to be worth anywhere from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000, is a thick set, 200-pound man of 60, very hospitable and famous for his hot-house fruits and his flower-garden, claimed to be the finest in the west.

Real Estate is the basis of wealth.

Florida has 300 men engaged in alligator killing, and the year's business is expected to go over $45,000.

Mrs. Eleanor Thompson, of Evansburg, Ind., has been the mother of twenty-one children; fourteen boys and seven girls.

Mr. Blaine is a cousin of Mrs. Gen. Sherman.

Industry, economy, and prudence, forerunners of success. They create that admirable combination of powers in one which always conduces to eventual prosperity.

No man can be brave who considers pain to be the greatest evil of life, nor temperate who considers pleasure the highest good.

Carpets manufactured in New York for a country house on the Hudson, recently, have in the center the name of the person who will occupy the room.

A little daughter of D. C. Hayes, of Columbus, buried twenty-seven years ago, was exhumed last week, and she was just as perfect in face and form as when she was laid away in 1857.

Frivolity, under whatever form it appears, takes from attention its strength, from thought its originality from feeling its earnestness.
