

LOCAL BREVITIES.

For Mortgage Loans on Real Estate, call on D. M. Erskine, Jr. Mrs. M. R. Williams is in the Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago for treatment.

Don't forget the Foresters' ball next Wednesday night in the Opera House.

Ten-cent indoor baseball game tomorrow (Saturday) evening in the Military Academy drill hall.

Don't forget to look over the Holiday goods at Dale Sweetland's before you make your purchases.

A New York paper says, "To avoid a rush, send your subscription right in quick". Ditto, as to the NEWS, $1.00 per annum.

Judged by the spelling of some of the notices posted in the post-office, there has been no school master in the Park since Noah Webster died.

Fred Schumacher has made a specialty of carefully and accurately prepared prescriptions: you don't order one thing and get another there.

The subject for the sermon at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday will be, "Does the Church need Broadening?". Rev. S. M. Johnson, Pastor.

The Editor of the NEWS is in need of half a dozen good calendars for his personal use. Only good ones wanted. C. H. Baker furnished the first one.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaufler are rejoicing in the advent, Dec. 4, of another boy to their young household. All are doing well under the care of Dr. Bergen.

Miss Fribert the assistant postmaster is taking a bit of a vacation. That stalwart youth from Highwood manipulates the stamping machine and sells stamps.

Some wicked fellow broke into the new brick church, on the west side, Monday night and stole $1.50 from the Sunday school money box. The loss won't ruin the society.

Some folks are asking how much more it costs to operate our city water works for a population of 3000 than it costs Waukegan for the same service for 9000 inhabitants.

Put a dollar in the top "bureau drawer" to pay for the NEWS when our solicitor calls next week. Everybody will support the only purely home paper the Park ever had.

James McDonald's goods have two qualities, first, high grade of excellence, second, one price for all and the bottom price at that. He don't sell Jones, goods below cost and then make it up on Smith or you.

"Where did you get your hair cut so nicely, Mr. Editor?" asked one of our prominent citizens the other day. "At Denzel's, of course; he is an artist, and advertises in the NEWS."

Duffy Brothers will deliver parcel, under 25 pounds, anywhere in the city for 10 cents each. Remember that, when you get Christmas goods in Chicago and want them taken home.

Rev. L. A. Gould desires publicly to express through the columns of the NEWS his gratitude to the citizens of Highland Park for their kindly assistance in time of great emergency last Sunday night.

Anything in the musical instrument line, from a big pipe church organ to a one-cent jewsharp, can be bought of Peter F. Dooley. He has a stock of mandolins on the way by special car from New York for the holidays.

Hon. L. S. Coffin of Fort Dodge, Iowa, president of the Railroad Men's home, is visiting "the boys" at Idlewild. Mr. Dodge began life down on the shores of old Champlain in Vermont, and his presence is a perpetual sunshine.

This Friday afternoon and evening the Presbyterian ladies give a bazaar at the residence of Mrs. Bergen on Laurel ave. Everything for the holidays and a specialty of inexpensive articles. Leave the NEWS for an hour or two and go.

The Lake Forest Pleasure Club give the first of their series of winter entertainments next week Friday evening, Dec. 18th, in Healy's hall. That organization never does anything by halves, and wishing a neat, artistic invitation printed, placed the order with the NEWS.

The Dutch Market given by the ladies last Friday was the biggest kind of a success. The hall was crowded. Everybody was in the best of spirits and as one man said, "It was the best sociable I ever attended in Highland Park." The ladies cleared over $100.

Augustus C. H. Kraft, of Idlewild, gave a very enjoyable entertainment with his "phone" of some kind at the Young Men's Club house, Saturday evening. There was a large attendance, and was so keenly enjoyed, that it will be repeated at no distant day. He has 12 cylinders; all good.
