LOCAL BREVITIES.

Holiday gifts at Sweetland's. The finest line of perfumes in the city.
 An elegant line of cut glass bottles.

The editor of the NEWS is just a little short of calendars for 1897.
 Insurance men and other dispensers of these essentials to successful living will take heed.

Charles H. Baker's wonderful baby is cutting teeth, and now the child's papa says he knows what led the poet to exclaim:

"Oh, for a lodge in some vast wilderness."

Listen to Postmaster Dooley's wail: "Bundles to right, bundles to left of me, bundles everywhere.
 When will the holidays be over."
 Be patient, friend, there is an end to most people's purse and credit.

All the schools closed Wednesday night, to open again Monday, Jan.
 4th, 1897, eleven full days, Sundays included, of holiday recess. Happy children, happy teachers. May all come back refreshed for the next term.

K. R. Smoot spent Monday afternoon in the High School and observed that the "room was too warm".
 He found too that from the cramped condition of affairs that larger accommodations would soon be a necessity. We can loan them the police court room for an occasional service!

When we get that electric railway down from Waukegan next summer, the fare will be 15 or 20 cents each way, and then people who borrow their neighbor's tickets, and forget to pay for it, to go to Chicago to buy a paper collar will go to the Bluff City to trade.

For Mortgage Loans on Real Estate, call on D. M. Erskine, Jr.

Dolls! Dolls! Dolls! all sizes at Sweetland's. A very nice line of Toys also.

C. F. Heydecker of Waukegan, W. F. Hogan of Highwood, and several other dignitaries were in the city Monday, attending court. A little more and the courts of this place will rival those of Waukegan or Chicago.

Pastor Johnson of the Presbyterian Church was unable to preach Sunday and Professor Stevenson of the McCormick Theological seminary filled the pulpit, using essentially the same theme the pastor had announced.

"You think that that sheep pasture up this side of Waukegan is North Chicago, do you? Well, you are deceived: North Chicago is a thriving town up this side of Menominee," said a Park citizen who has been up there and looked the ground over.

Postmaster Dooley wishes the public to know that during the holidays, he will sell, strictly for cash, postage stamps for letters at two cents each, and newspaper stamps at one cent each. He is bound these hard times to meet the people half-way.

Three persons were tried in Judge Hibbard's court Monday for selling liquor without license, each pleading guilty and were fined $25.00 and costs, each with promise to quit the business and get out of the county in ten days or stand trial in other courts. Total costs and fines for the three were over $130.00.

Dr. Bergen is having his hands full of babies these days. He is earing for the Nelson and Bahr children and other little folks. We see by the papers that he is getting up quite an enviable reputation not only as a children's physician, but as an expert in the use of antitoxin.
 His success in this line adds largely to his value as a physician in this city.

William B. Morgan, the electrician left Monday to spend the holidays with his sister and her husband and his brother in Missouri.
 Both the men are Methodist preachers, and being an electrician, he is going to give them both homeopath-ic doses, so they can stir the people.
 Seriously, it will be a delightful reunion of all this side of the Atlantic, and how their thoughts will go back to the old old home over the sea.
 We wish him a happy time as an experience, and fruitful as a pleasant memory.
