LOCAL ITEMS.

Major H. H. Humphreys, of the 12th Infantry, whom so many people remember as one of the accomplished officers at Fort Sheridan, is at Fort Niobrara, Neb. As Mrs. Humphrey owns realty in old Port Clinton, he is looking after those delightful special assessments.

Mrs. W. S. James presented her husband with a fine six foot toboggan Christmas, so he can go out to the ravine and slide down hill to his heart's content every morning before breakfast. But oh, dear! it was made in Burlington, Vermont, the "Queen City," of that state, and one of the prettiest anywhere in the Union.

Two men had a "scrap" one day in the highway down east, and this is the lurid way the local paper describes the "event". "Warren whacked Dana on the hip, and Dana drew the claret from the handle of Warren's face, and both went off crowing." And the little state where this occurred has four colleges, one theological seminary, academies by the score, lots of public libraries, from one to half a score of newspapers in every town, and more candidates for public office to the square mile than any state in the Union.

The editor of the News wrote an article for the Chicago Standard a few months ago on the "Election of Deacons", which the Editor of Der Wahrheitssenge, of Hamburg, Germany, has translated and published in his paper. If the article is as jawbreakig as the name of the paper we pity the Hamburgers who read it. In fact, for their sake, we are almost sorry we wrote it.

One year ago Sunday last, the 27th, was the Silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Millard, one of the choicest social events of Highland Park.

One year ago Wednesday morning, when Postmaster W. E. Brand entered the office, he was not a little shocked to find the safe door blown off and lying on the floor and $184 in cash and $1728 in postage stamps missing. Miss Fribert, chief clerk, had her purse full of her earnings, also in the safe, but the burglars overlooked that.

Charles Kuist, the hardware man, is already laying in his supplies for next season. He has received a large consignment of those celebrated scythe stones from the quarries of Ryegate, Vermont, so plainly visible from the train as you climb the mountain up through Ryegate, Grotton, etc., from Well's River to Montpelier.

Here is a Libertyville man advertising "Estey Organs". Don't he know that they are made in Vermont, and it is almost a crime to mention the name of that state in Lake County! And yet, come to think of it, the first white settler in Lake County was from Rutland, Vt., and they have kept coming from that state ever since.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

There are several railroad men whose homes are in this city. Wm. Maroney, engineer on engine number 103 with Vance Chamberlain as conductor and Herbert Whiting as baggage-master. Charles Tripp is engineer on engine number 670, R. K. Duffield, conductor, and John Snyder as baggage-master.

Conductor Duffield's train leaves here at 7:25 a. m. and back at 12:30 midnight with the crew running out to Evanston and other suburbs between times.

Conductor Chamberlain's train leaves at 5:35 a. m. and returns at 9:50 p. m., with suburban work during the day.

There was a new time table Sunday week, but the changes are few. From Chicago three trains week-day forenoon, and 18 trains in the afternoon and evening, with 11 morning and 8 afternoon and evening trains to Chicago, a total of 40 trains daily both ways. On Sundays we have 3 forenoon and 9 afternoon trains from the city, 3 forenoon and 7 afternoon trains into Chicago, a total of 29 trains both ways Sundays. Quite a burg this, and just got its first bona-fide home print local paper. Subscribe for the News.
