We understand that Judge Pettis of old Deerfield has bored and piped with 2 inch galvanized iron pipe, a 150 foot well at Ravinia that gives an unfailing supply of pure water very like our old artesian. Lake water is not pure; not very bad here, but it is not pure.

The editor of the News has received an invitation to attend the state Dairy Convention in DeKalb, February 24-26. The Illinois farmers evidently wish to learn how to make these wonderful Vermont sage-cheese which sell in Chicago at 25 cents a pound. They can learn it, if they will.

Fred Schumacher is now running hot soda and will serve you an elegant cup of hot chocolate.

George S. Tiffany is hoping his wife and child will return from California about the first of February.

Mrs. Dr. N. T. Jamieson, of Chicago, and little daughters, were out Saturday to see her mother and "grandpa Bingham".

There was another game of indoor baseball at the Opera House, Friday evening, between the bachelors and the married men. The game was an exciting one and the score stood 15 to 12 in favor of the bachelors.

A Massachusetts church has hit upon an idea. The church is in debt, its pastor has no great "pull" on the public, so they close the church, and the pastor becomes an editor. If any of our churches wish to try the plan, we will sell our position for a valuable consideration, and let the pastor become a millionaire as editor, "lift" the church debt, and, and resign.

On Wednesday last, the members of White City Division No. 100, the Ladies Auxiliary of the order of Railway Conductors, made a visit to the railroad Employes Home. After an afternoon of pleasant remembrances, with words of cheer for the inmates, they returned to the city with a resolution that any assistance they and their sisters of the order, could render, they would consider part of their duties. Such angel visits are appreciated by the boys.

On the reading room table of the Young Men's Club, we found the Atlantic, Harper's, Century, Scribner, Outing, McClure's, Cosmopolitan, Munsey, New Illustrated, the Strand, monthly magazines, with half a dozen or more weeklies, like Harper's; Leslie's, Puck, etc. We call that a pretty fine equipment for the use of young men, and a young man can have all of this and all the other privileges of the Club for the cost of one magazine.

W. C. Stubbs started for the train Monday morning, and had his usual morning frolic on the way, with his huge mastiff. The walk was so slippery the dog could not control himself and somehow ran against Mr. Stubbs, throwing him violently to the ground, the back of his head hitting on the edge of the cement walk, cutting a big gash in the back of his head, and making him unconscious for some time. Miss Anna Gray saw him lying on the walk and assisted him into the house, where Dr. Bergen was summoned, dressed the wound, and left the patient in a very hopeful condition.
