

HIGHWOOD HAPPENINGS.

THE GOOD TEMPLARS.

The county lodge of the Good Templars was held Saturday evening at the hall. On account of the weather the attendance was small and there were only two contestants in the oratory contest:

Miss Laura Jonas of Rockefeller and Mr. Redner of Fort Sheridan. The medal was awarded to Miss Jonas. Mr. Brown, Past Chief Templar of Idaho, made some remarks and R. E. Winter made a speech. An auction sale of cakes, followed by an hour of social enjoyment, ended the evening's entertainment.

Frank Jernigan of the 15th, now conductor on the "L" road in Chicago visited friends here Sunday.

There was a small party at the home of Eber Woodruff Friday evening. A good time is reported.

C. E. Preston and wife spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Lentz of Chicago, who for some time lived here.

The Electric road will probably come up before the board next Tuesday for consideration. Public sentiment is very favorable.

Behold! skaters went out to skate and when they were come to the slough, behold there was such a rising of the elements and falling of snow flakes that they must needs take unto themselves skates and flee home from the storm to come.

Miss May Parkhurst is again ill. R. M. Pease filled her place Wednesday morning and in the afternoon her place was taken by Miss Dolan of Evanston, who will continue to teach until Miss Parkhurst recovers.

J. B. Markham, who founded the Pioneer store at Fort Sheridan, lost his wife a week ago Sunday, in California, where he had gone to recruit his own health. Mr. Markham was also in business in Waukegan.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

This was held Thursday evening to elect delegates to the judicial convention at Libertyville, Saturday. Judge Upton retires and a new man is to be nominated. The delegates will find a choice dinner, in the basement of the town hall, furnished by the ladies of the M. E. Church. The following delegates were elected:
