ABOUT THE CITY.

Insure your property with D. M.
Erskine, Jr., & Co.

Constable Fred Rudolph is on duty in Waukegan this week.

Mr. Wiggs of Rockford ball team, was in town visiting with W. S.
Ellis.

Lawyer B. W. Schumacher has rented the Vail house for the season, and will move in at an early day.

Theodore Heinrichs moved out of the Highland Block yesterday.
Their household goods went to Chicago on drays.

We understand that John Rudolph was called in place of M. J. Cray on the jury in Waukegan this week.
Good selection.

Sidney G. Jones, of Western Springs, Ill., who has been visiting with his cousins at Mr. and Mrs.
R. G. Evans, returned to his home Tuesday.

A bright little miss asked the aged Police Judge of this city a few days ago if he was not 60 years old, adding that she thought he was "exempt" from further duty. That may be the popular verdict, and the little child was an unconscious prophet!

Carver & MacKay, the nobby Chicago tailors, offer the Editor of the News special inducements to order one of their elegant $20 bicycle suits.
As we presume they would accept an order on the city of Highland Park, we would be glad to order one.
But what is the use of a suit, when the Council in its wisdom and zeal for the public good, refuses to allow us to ride our wheel?

Tomorrow (Saturday) is schoolchildren's day for tintypes at Brand's studio.

Mr. McDonald, who has put in several days on the grand jury at Waukegan, is home again.

If you vote for the right men at the caucus you will be remembered for all time as patriotic, loyal citizens; if you fail, your name will be forgotten. See?

K. R. Smoot, our city attorney, has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Humble, with bonds at $28,000. How he got his bonds without calling on us, we can't understand, because Judge Jones don't take straw bonds.

Mrs. J. F. Rice came out Tuesday to put her home in order for the family occupancy at once. The bad air, poor water, and general wickedness of Chicago, has prostrated the children and she is obliged to come out here to save her family.

A boarding house keeper has a sign, "No children taken here." The inhuman monster, where was he when a kid; farmed out to some hospital, or did he, like Minerva, come into the world full grown and full panoplied? "No children here!" What would home be without children? A quiet happy place!

We suppose the reason why Fred Rudolph don't announce himself as a candidate for constable is that he is modest, and everybody knows him; that he is honest, prompt and faithful in his business relations and duties, and if the people want such a kind of a man, they know where to find him. We guess they will find him.

Alderman Obee gave the News a very handsome compliment by mentioning it at the last Council meeting. It was one of those unconscious tributes men sometimes pay to the press when they do not intend it. A greater man would have said nothing, but the News thanks Alderman Obee all the same for his recognition, in so public a manner, of its influence.

For the benefit of the new justices of the peace to be elected, we give a bit of Kentucky practice. The justice got all mixed up in the evidence, speeches of the lawyers and did not know what to do. An old lawyer happened to sit near by and he asked him in a whisper what to do, and the old fellow said "The case ought to be thrown out." Up went the second story window and out went a pile of papers—the case was thrown out. His mistake was in not pitching the litigants and attorneys out of the window.
