

HIGHWOOD HAPPENINGS.

Miss Mayme Smith of Hitt, Ill., is visiting her cousin, Miss May Parkhurst.

When you go to Mrs. Stensohn's store you don't have to swim any more; there is a new cross walk there.

Hiram Wheeler reports thriving times; he is justly pleased with a new woodchopper which came to his home last week.

A horse belonging to John P. Nelson got his foot down in the mud out in the second slough. Although every effort was made to release him he died before he could be freed.

The school election for this district has appeared on the horizon with only two candidates in sight, Mrs. Daniel Pease and D. H. Murphy. The place is the one caused by the expiration of the term of F. E. Woodruff.

The town election on the 6th takes place at Mrs. Stensohn's store. The contests for this end of the town are assistant supervisor between W. F. Hogan and J. S. Prall and constable between J. Albert Burke and Charles Gordon.

Miss Alice Skidmore, who so long presided at our post office, and later took care of the one at Ft. Sheridan, left last Wednesday for New Hampshire, where she will marry Mr. Weston, formerly of the army. She takes with her the best wishes of hosts of friends.

For the village election on the 20, there will be two tickets filed with the clerk before Monday, the People and the Independent. The People's is supported by the "powers that be," the present administration. The ticket is as follows: for president, W. F. Hogan; for trustees, Chas. J. Benson, John Bolan, Herman Swanson; for village clerk, Herbert E. Evans; for police magistrate, W. E. Cummings. The Independent ticket is supported by many of the best citizens of the village. Its personnel consists of Joseph Severson, president; C. E. Johnson, Chas. Brown Ole M. Onsom, Trustees, H. E. Evans, clerk and J. Shonley magistrate. The trustees whose terms expire this spring are, Jos. Severstn Chas. J. Benson and Samuel E. Wilson.

The Ossoli Club held its usual semi-monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in Club house, Mrs. H. G. Street, presiding. Mrs. Frank P. Hawkins read the paper, which the ladies seemed to enjoy. After the paper an elegant repast of six or eight courses was served. About 50 ladies were present, including several guests.
