LOCAL ITEMS.

Use Sweetland's Celery Headache powders.
New shirt waists and Easter bon-nets at Miss Erskine's.
The public schools observed this afternoon as "Bird Day."
The Art league meets for permanent organization at 3:30 p. m. today.
The candidate for township trustee of schools next Saturday will be C.
G. Phillips and Lot Daniel Cobb.

Have you seen the new Easter hats at Miss Erskine's?

If you are intending to move this spring it will pay you to see Duffy Bros., the expressmen.

Pastor Thoren is out of town this week attending conference. Mr.
T. H. Spencer will take his place Sunday evening.

Mrs. A. Bock is fast getting her grocery department into shape. With her increased shelf room she can better display her stock.

The stereopticon lecture announced in another column for Tuesday, April 13th, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the large amount of sickness in the Park.

The reputation of our job printing department is growing. We have the facilities to quickly turn out artistic printing. It pays to use good printed stationery in your business.

The women who wish to vote can do so and for as good men as there are in town—Judge Pease and City Attorney Smoot. Don't fail to vote, wives, mothers, sisters, sweethearts, hired girls and all. Vote sure.

Ingalls Bros & Co. say they have the best bicycle and sewing machine oil in Highland Park. They guarantee it not to gum. They also have the bicycles on which to use the oil and like the oil, they are cheap too. Drop in and see them.

John Freberg had a little runaway Tuesday. He just left a pair for a minute, but election day things were lively and in that time those horses hustled, went into the depot park fence causing but little damage and bringing things to a standstill.

We learn that Albert H. Wolfe, the architectural iron manufacturer, is going to build a fine residence on the property purchased last summer through Mr. Coale. It has a south frontage of 180 feet on Vine avenue, 100 feet west of Mr. Corwith's house.

The public will be glad to know that Frank Siljestrom, the ice man who succeeds Mr. Clampitt, is already on the road with his cart and pure Wisconsin ice. He attends to his own business personally. His phone is No. 51. Call him up when you want ice.

There was a great discussion the other day about the name of the west side child who made up the 3,000 population of the Park, and we are urgently pressed to find a name for the child. Well, we will ransack our big brain and see what can be done as soon as election wears off a bit.

The Ossoli club held a special business meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Palmer of Chicago exhibited and explained her plan of teaching music in the kindergartens.
The club meeting for next week Thursday is postponed on account of Holy Thursday.

A merchant asked us Wednesday if we thought Judge Comstock would open up his proposed bank now out of his judicial services. Good time for a bank; lots of fellows ready to borrow if anybody will lend. Let us have a bank; one that will lend on "easy terms," you know—none of those tight-fisted, grinding Chicago concerns.
