

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Under ordinary circumstances Tuesday would have been a lonely day, but the atmosphere was fairly lurid with political heat.

County Clerk Murrie says that Town Collector of East Deerfield John C. Duffy had the finest set of tax books returned to his office from the different towns.

Alfred St Peter had out his Arabians working for Baker and each horse had a white duck blanket bearing the motto "Vote for Chas. H. Baker" in big black letters.

April 19th will be a historic day henceforth for another reason: the Greeks gave the unspeakable, blood-thirsty, detestable Turks a good sound thrashing at Ravenzi. 'Rah for the Greeks; down with the Turks.

City Engineer Bowen's little boy took a carriage ride alone Saturday afternoon; but strange to say, he was not hurt, being thrown into the soft mud in front of Freberg's livery stable. A big crowd gathered and were gratified to learn no harm befell the little fellow.

C. P. Sullivan, the plumber, has the job on Mr. Wald's house. Mr. Sullivan is one of the men who rolls up his sleeves and works himself, hence there are no bad spots in his contracts. He has started here to build up a solid and enduring business reputation for honest satisfactory work.

No place on this planet has seen so many air ships during the last few weeks as our somewhat slow suburb, Waukegan. Nothing strange about that: with a population of ten thousand, Waukegan, the last we heard, had about 20 licensed saloons and if they won't make old men dream dreams and young men see visions, and everybody see air ships, we don't know what will.
