OF LOCAL INTEREST.

If you want a delicious cold drink try Schumacher's ice cream soda with crushed fruits.

J. L. Stockton has taken possession of his summer home, down in the pocket by the lake.

Orson B. Brand has been making some changes and repairs at his house on Second street.

George B. Cummings opened his soda fountain Wednesday, and is now known excellence of the "old tenable" pharmacy.

Last night (Thursday) there was a missionary entertainment at the Evangelical church. The children received ice cream and cake at its conclusion. About $25 was cleared.

Will Cummings of this city, while riding to the city on the cars, in some way got hurt and is now at St. Elizabeth's Hospital. His sister, Mrs. Nels Swanson is with him.

Moses Loeb, the father of Lazarus Loeb of this city died last Thursday, April 29th, at the home of Mrs.
 Moses. He was 88 years old. He was buried at Waldheim, funeral being held last Sunday morning.

Now is the time to make your contract with William Tillman, Jr., for sprinkling your streets. There will be one more rain storm, while the last coat of varnish is drying on his sprinkling cart, and then will come the hot days and dusty streets. He uses purified lake water, free from sewage, bacteria or other contamination, as it is all strained through a strainer with inch-square meshes.

We are happy to say that our friend, Charles H. Baker, after a severe attack of the measles, with a fever in the back-ground, and some other things equally pleasant, is still on his feet and at his office, although he looks a little "peaked," as they used to say down in Maryland.
 We sometimes think our business men are not always wise in selecting the time to have a "fit of sickness," but Mr. Baker's second thought to get well and attend to that ice trade of his, shows his good judgment.

One of our neighbors wanted a servant and advertised in the News, of course, as everybody reads it. The next day among the candidates was one who asked the mistress to see her references. "References," exclaimed the astonished woman; "I have nothing of the sort." "Very well, mum; I don't work where the mistress can't furnish the best of references from her former help." Now, ladies, you see what you are coming to.

DEFEATED BY CADETS.

The Cadets defeated the Northwestern academy team of Evanston, Wednesday afternoon, by a score of 3 to 2. The playing was fast and clean throughout. The fine work of Austin at center and Plummer's catch of a long, hard-hit fly were features. Score:

Cadets	1	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	3
N. A's	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	2

Batteries, Campbell and Ellis for Cadets; Smiley and Rodman for Sergeant Timberly.
