

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Miss Carrie Shays of Chicago, was the guest of Mrs. George B. Cummings over Sunday.

Three of the school teachers, the Misses Bottum and Miss King who were boarding at Rector Wolcott's, have taken rooms with Mrs. T. D. Hull.

Rev. P. C. Wolcott started to move into the newly purchased rectory next the church, when his children broke out with the measles, which delays matters somewhat, though he will have all the fun there is in it later.

A New York town has two curiosities. One is a man without hands who plays the piano; the other is a girl who has no voice, but she sings nevertheless. We have seen several such girls—down in Vermont—none out west, of course.

The Highland Park Base Ball club held its annual meeting last Saturday evening and elected the following: H. M. Prior, manager; Charles R. Patchin, secretary and treasurer; J. Higgs, captain. They will give an entertainment soon, to raise money for uniforms.

William Hyndman of Ravinia, is installed as clerk in James McDonald's store. He is a very quiet, polite and attentive clerk and promises to make a success. He seems to be the kind of a young man people like in such a place. He proposes to work his way up to the front and the top.

That famous school down in Ann Arbor Mich., of which "Jimmy" Angell is president and City Attorney K. R. Smoot is an alumnus and Mrs. Smoot and Mrs. Mersereau are alumnae, has 3,102 students. Quite a school that, besides those we used to teach down east, and "board around;" three days for each Jane, and John, and Sam, etc., we had.

Miss Mamie Fribert, after about five years' service in the post office, closed her service for Uncle Sam and will spend the summer in a long vacation at her home in Juneau, Wis. Miss Fribert has proved a very capable, efficient and accommodating official. She mastered the details of the work in the office, including the money order business, and so far as competency was concerned is wholly capable of running the office. She will be greatly missed by the patrons of the office. We don't know anything, but think there is a cat in the meal somewhere, and more than half guess a home of her own may arise above the horizon in the "sweet by and by." Our best wishes go out with her wherever she may go.
