

ABOUT TOWN.

C. W. Aldridge and family are on the "briny deep", with their faces Englandward.

Mrs. Crawford has rented and moved into the Steers cottage down in Pocket "C," off Belle avenue.

Wanted—A good girl for general housework—German preferred. Apply to Mrs. D. C. Purdy, 205 Central ave.

Robert C. Raffin took in the Garden City Wednesday afternoon, and looked after some business matters for Raffin & Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry I. Morris left the Park Monday morning to attend the centennial at Nashville. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

With only one little petty law suit by default, no burglaries or thefts or runaways, elopements, killed by the cars, or other item of interest, the life of the newspaper man is hard enough.

If you want bottled goods, pickles or relishes, don't forget that Mrs. A. Bock carries the Heinz brand, of Pittsburg, Penn., the best put up this side of the Atlantic. She has the McLaughlin coffees also, besides lots of other first-class goods.

Mrs. A. W. Fletcher writes from California that she is having a delightful time out there in the land of figs and oranges, and best of all her health is much improved by the change of climate. Her family will look for her about July 1st, in time for fire crackers etc., on the Fourth.

We see W. S. James has sold the east 25 feet of his lot on Central avenue, wisely deciding that 100 feet is enough for any sensible young man to push the mower over. As we grow older, wiser and lazier we want less lawn mower business each year.
