We are glad to know our school ma'ams are going to take our advice of last week and be on their guard henceforth. They love their work and will abide in it.

We had to have a carpenter a day last week and got Charles Streiber to send us a man, and he sent Henry Mechtle, and we found him a faithful, honest, industrious man. He did not look at his watch every 15 minutes to see if it was time to stop, and he proved to be a man of good judgment also, and together we put in a big day's work—we did not do the big part either.
