

ABOUT TOWN.

Don't forget the Glee Club concert at McDonald's hall tonight.

Old Mr. Dyer has been ill about a week, some of the time seriously so, but is better now and seems convalescing.

The Alta school, we learn, will hold its commencement or anniversary one week from next Wednesday, or June 2d. With the twenty to twenty-five pupils they can make a good exhibit.

Chicago is talking of an Anti-Rubbish League. If one should be established and its edicts enforced, the subscribers of some of the journals published there would receive little but white paper.

We hear vigorous complaints of the condition of the celebrated "fill" down on the Sheridan road, near the Ravinia line. Now, gentlemen, be patient, and we will go down some day on our wheel and look that matter over and decide what's what.

Daniel Eyer, of Salt Lake City, spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Smoot. Lawyer C. B. Eyer and his family from Evanston, came up for a family visit Sunday, and found it in a delightful drive up the Sheridan road.

For the benefit of dyspeptics and other invalids, to whom wholesome, nutritious and easily digested food is a necessity, we want to say Mrs. A. Bock has the famous Franklin Mills, Lockport, N. Y., whole wheat flour and it makes the sweetest and best bread known. It is vastly better than pills and paregoric.

A. G. Boulton was out here over Sunday and took in the natural beauties of Ravinook as usual. He proposes to spend the week in the city and his Sundays here, we understand; a capital idea that, too. Mr. Boulton has the keenest and most accurate vision for natural beauties of any young man of our acquaintance. Besides he is not wholly averse to the beautiful and lovely in social functions; hence, these Sunday trips.

Charles H. Warren went up to Highwood Sunday week and made for the township Sunday school convention so crisp and timely a little speech that they elected him a delegate to the state convention, held last week in Belville, down in St. Clair county, near St. Louis, and he went with his employer, R. W. Hare, of the Nonotuck Silk company; who is the efficient treasurer of the state organization. Mr. Warren had a grand time, if he was down in the borders of our modern Egypt.
