ABOUT TOWN.

The police judge will hold court Saturday at 2 o'clock in police court room. It is a mere case of assumption, and won't take long, so you need not be there; better weed your garden.

Mrs. A. Bock, though not able to be about the store yet, is improving rapidly and bids fair soon to be in her usual health.

A first class, light and airy flat of three rooms to rent cheap. City water, sewer and kerosene lights. Terms very reasonable, at this office.

Pastor Johnson, in his announcements last Sunday, called attention to the Children's Day service, Sunday, June 13th, in place of the usual preaching service.

If you want the superbest wheeling of our Central and Vine avenues go up to the post and scorch on their magnificent drives in face of our daily stiff nor'westers.

Mrs. Bird left the early part of the week for Fort Bayard, N. M., to be with her husband. Miss Belle and George Evans, her daughter and son, will be at Highwood during the summer.

For the benefit of her many friends in this city, we will say that our former neighbor, Mrs. Julia R. Leach has changed her residence in Chicago, to one nearer the great University, and is now located at 5487 Lexington avenue.

The Waukegan Minstrels drew a fair crowd at McDonald's Hall last night. The feature of the evening was the fine violin playing by Chas. K. Linsley. The duet, "Larboard Watch" and the renditions of the quartette were also very fine.

If any of the residents of the Park wish to know whether they will be sold out for taxes on the delinquent list, just call on the editor of the News at his home and he will show you the list for "a quarter," or for nothing, just as you like. At all events he wants to help you.

Judge Dooley holds court in the room in the rear of W. S. Warren's barber shop. It used to be the big ice room of a meat market, so the Judge can "pack" the jury in there if they refuse verdict or call in the help of the barber to shave the litigants if the court fails. Good place; wish we had such an one.

We have just heard that those enterprising and successful First United people are talking, — just talking, you know—of a $300 or $400 clock in the tower of the new church, so that staunch Scotch Presbyterian neighbor of theirs, William Grant, won't be late to the trains. Some folks talk and talk and talk, and as the little girl said of the peripatetic speech maker, "said nothin'" and do nothing, and then some folks talk a little and do lots. You know to which class the First United belong.

A company of Chicago men left Fort Sheridan last Saturday morning in a yacht, in whose bottom they stove a hole and spent all day getting into port at our pumping station, where Engineer Scott played the good samaritan. Expecting to be in Chicago by noon, they gave away all their provisions when leaving the Fort and so had to come up town and patronize our markets. We found them at sunset cooking steak, potatoes and coffee on the beach. They repaired their boat and sailed to the Garden city Sunday morning.
