Professor W. A. Wilson of the High School, is the representative for the North Shore of the Harper's Weekly Club which is being organized for the introduction of Charles Dudley Warner's new literary work, "The Library of the World's Best Literature."

We suggest that all our citizens take hold and aid our new city marshal, Frank Sheahan, to the full extent of our ability. He is new to the work, but he has ability, public spirit, and a purpose to make a good official. Kindly help is better than acrimonious criticism.

A camp, colony or wigwam of Red Men was organized Wednesday evening in Goldberg's hall, having about 30 charter or "scalp" members. Ingalls did the catering in fine style. They flourished the tomahawk, smoked the wampum, and sounded the war-whoop till 2:30 and then returned to the haunts and homes of civilized life, "redder," if not better men.

There was a pleasant marriage Tuesday evening, June 1st, in St. Mary's church by Father Madden, when he united in holy wedlock Miss Lizzie Rogan and Mr. Michael May, both of this city. A large circle of friends witnessed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. May had a delightful reception in their new home on the Green Bay road, above Central avenue. So pleasant a time did their guests have, that they lingered till the wee small hours.
