

HIGHWOOD HAPPENINGS.

Highwood defeated Highland Park at base ball last Sunday to the score of 18 to 13.

Mrs. John Rectenwald spent Wednesday in Englewood on a visit to friends there.

Work on the target range and the Golf grounds has given employment to a large number of Highwood workmen.

The Highwood choral society had a meeting last Wednesday for the purpose of organizing, but owing to the small number present, the organization was postponed.

In last week's News, sewer outlet was spelled lower outlet. Nevertheless the fact remained that Highland Park has already had enough time to ratify six contracts.

The graduating class of the public schools were photographed last Monday afternoon by Newman Finney. The diplomas, which have not yet been awarded, will be sent to the class very soon.

Suit has been brought by A. Wahlman against Charles Gordon for assault and battery before Judge Hibbard of Highland Park. Mr. Gordon was put under bond to appear and answer to the charges in the trial.

There is considerable difference between an orphan, a gorilla, the Prince of Wales, and a bald-headed man. An orphan has ne'er a parent, the Prince of Wales is an heir apparent, the gorilla has a hairy parent, and the bald-headed man has no hair apparent.

Did you see some men yesterday with black eyes, scarred foreheads, and swelled heads? They are the "light brigade" that went to Gross Point Monday evening to dance. But instead, they got floored. Moral—Evanston must not take liberties even with Highwood.

The I. O. G. T. held a basket social at their lodge room last Monday evening. An auction was held and the lunch baskets were sold by R. E. Winte; to various of the 60 who were present. The proceeds of the auction amounted to over $14. The lodge has added 15 new members since January 1.

An important meeting of the Trustees was held last Tuesday evening. An order was given to the clerk to advertise for bids for a lot upon which to build a town hall. Plans and specifications are now in order for a building which shall eclipse the Masonic Temple. The following appointments were also submitted and approved; treasurer,

Charles McDonough; collector; Harry Brownlee; marshal, Charles Gordon; assistant, James Gordon. The Street commissioner and Waterworks commissioner were also reappointed.

RAVINIA ITEMS.

Julius Neist entertained a picnic party last Sunday.

The Ravinia Improvement society will meet at the regular place at 8 o'clock next Monday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Hartman was a visitor at the graduating exercises of the Illinois Training School for nurses last Tuesday.

Charles A. Stevens, the State street silk merchant, addressed the meetings held at the Home both last Sunday and the Sunday previous.

Mrs. Grant has rented her house on Judson avenue to a Mr. Carter for a term of three years. The place is being put in readiness for its new occupants.

Messrs. Ralph Hardacre and Schuyler Colburn of Englewood, made a brief visit with Mrs. Comstock last Saturday, after riding out on their wheels.

Mrs. Dr. Ingalls has again returned home after spending a few weeks at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago. Mrs. Ingalls is much improved in health.

C. P. Hughes of the Railroad Men's Home, has recovered so far as to be able to leave. He attended the B. of R. T. convention at Toronto and after stopping at the Home for a couple of days on his return, he went to St. Louis. Mr. Hughes expects to go into some business for himself.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

William Ellis took pictures of the school in a group Tuesday.

Lulu and Bertha Bell were out last week on account of measles.

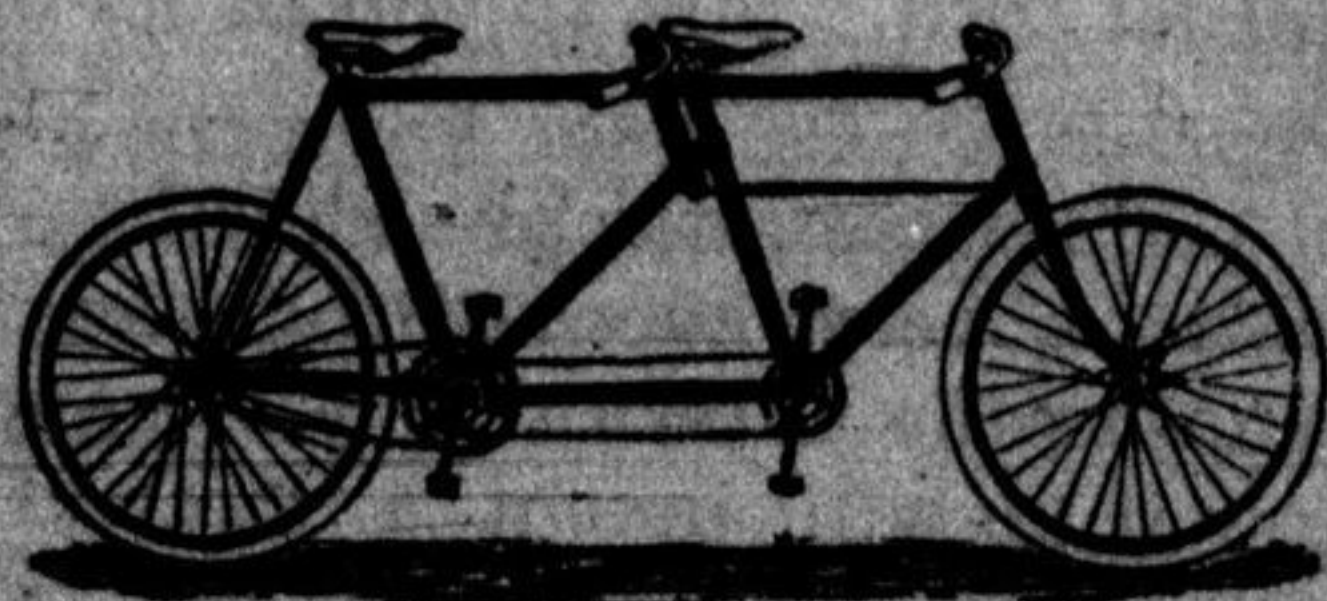

The seniors are rehearsing their essays and making their graduating dresses.

Frank Conrad thinks it is better late than never. He entered school last week. He is in plenty of time for next year though.

The ball game with the Kenilworth's resulted in defeat for the High School. The score was 25 to 15. But "keeping everlastingly at it, brings success."

There has not been as many Marion essays handed in as was expected, but it is hoped they will make up in quality, what is lacking in quantity. The medal will be awarded sometime next week.
